Here begynneth a good booke of medecines called the Treasure of poore men,

Tabula.

¶ Here begynneth the table of thys pzesent boke.

Fyzst to make Aqua vite. Fo.i.
To make Claret and pyment. fo.ii.
To make.vi.pzecious waters .fo.ii.
To clere the syght of the Eyes fo.iii.
Foz soze eyes fo.vi.
To make a good water called Maydens Mylke. fo.vi.
An other foz soze eyes. fo.vi.
Foz the payne in a mannes eye fo.vii.
A water foz the syght fo.vii.
Water of Coperas fo.vii.
Water of Betayne fo.viii.
A water to clere a mānes syght fo.viii.
Another water foz soze eyes fo.viii.
A water called Sal gemme fo.viii.
Foz the eyes that be blode shotte fo.ix.
Foz the Tye in the eye fo.ix.
Foz soze eyes fo.ix.
Foz the bawe in the Eyes fo.ix.
Foz Eyes that be blered fo.x.
An oyntement foz the Eyes fo.x.
Foz Eyes that be blered fo.x.
Foz a webbe in the Eye fo.x.
Foz Eyes that be almost blynde fo.xi.
Foz Eyes that bene blasted fo.xii.
Foz Eyes that ben ful of ache fo.xii.
Foz Eyes that do renne fo.xii.
Foz the perle in the Eys fo.xii.

Tabula.

A water for the Eyes fo.xiiii.
For the ache in the eyes fo.xiiii.
For lumydytes of the eyes fo.xiiii.
A precyous pouder of mayster Peter de Vylla noua fo.xiiii.
Of a pouder called Bonauēture fo.xiiii.
For rednes of eyes fo.xiiii.
A pouder for a webbe in the Eye fo.14.
For the Eyes fo.xiiii.
A medecyne for the eye if it be hurt with athorne. fo.xiiii.
For the webbe in the eye fo.xb
For maladyes in the eyes fo.xbi.
For the ordure in the Eye fo.xbi.
To helpe a mannes syght fo.xbi.
For lettynge of blode to saue a mannes syght. fo.xbii.

¶ For deseases in the hed.

For all maner of hed ache fo.xbiii.
To clense the hed fo.xix.
For the vanyte in the hed fo.xx.
For woundes in the hed fo xx.
To knowe yf the brayne panne be broken. fo.xx.
For the mygrayne in the hed fo.xxi.
For all maner of aches in the hed fo.xxii.
To purge the hed fo.xxii.
For the ache in the hed fo xxii.
For the worme in the hed. fo.xxii.

Tabula.

For the ache in the hed fo.xxii.
For the mygrayne fo.xxiiii.
To restore the brayne fo.xxb.

¶ For the Eares.

For defnes in the Eares fo.xxb.
For rynnynge Eres fo.xxb.
For a man that may nat here fo.xxb.

¶ For bledynge at the nose.

To stauncge blode of a wounde fo.xxbi.
For bledynge agaynst kynde. fo.xxbii.
To stanche bledyng at the nose fo.xxbii.
To knowe yf a wounded man shall lyue or dye. fo.xxbii.

¶ For ache in the tethe.

For the akynge of tethe that commeth of wormes. fo.xxbiii.
For wormes in the tethe fo.xxix
To make tethe faste. fo.xxix.
For to make wormes to come out of the tethe. fo.xxix.
To slee wormes in the tethe fo.xxix.
For the tothe ache and swellynge in the gommes. fo.xxx.
To fasten tethe that be lose. fo.xxx.
To make tethe to fal by thē selfe fo xxxi
For stynkynge tethe. fo.xxxi.
To make tethe whyte fo.xxxi.

¶ For paynes in the mouthe.

A remedy for them that haue lose theyr

Tabula.

speche. fo.rrrr.
A remedy for them that speketh in theyr slepe. fo.rrrr.
A remedy for them that dothe dreme in theyr slepe. fo.rrrr.
A remedy for them that maye nat well slepe. fo.rrrr.
To kepe one fro slepe, fo.rrrr.
Agaynste spyttynge of blode fo.rrrr.
for them that may nat eate fo.rrrr.
Agaynst great hete in the mouth fo.rrrr
The Canker in the mouth fo.rrrr.
A medecyne for the euyl throte fo.rrrr.
One that hathe lost his speche fo.rrrr.
A Canker in the mouthe fo.rrrr.
for the Canker in the chekes or lyppes. Folio. rrrrr.

¶ For stynkynge breth.
Stynkynge breth of the stomake. fo rrr.
Stynkynge breth of the brayne renneth out at the nose fro the brayne fo rrrr.
To make good brethe, fo.rrrb.
For a stynynge nose fo.rrrb.
¶ To make a man perbrake fo.rrrb.
For them that may nat well holde theyr meate. fo.rrrb.
¶ For a colde Cough fo.rrrb.
For colde fo rrrb.
For the Cough fo.rrrb.

Tabula.

For them that maye nat drawe wynde. folio. xxxbii.
For the Coughe fo.xxxbii.
for a drye Coughe fo.xxxbii.
For the perylious Coughe fo.xxxix.
for swellyng vnder the chynne fo.xxxix.
For straytnes in the pypes fo.xxxix.
for thole ꝑ haue moch syckenes fo.xl.
For syckenes aboute the herte fo.xl.
for rysynge at the herte fo.xl.
For stoppynge of the pypes fo.xli.
To comforte the stomake fo.xli.

¶ For syckenes in the breste.

For stoppynge of the breste fo.xli.
for euel in the breste fo.xliii.
For the breste that is compost fo.xliii.
for ꝑ cākerin a womās pappe fo.xliiii.
For a fester fo.xliiii.
To make a womans breste softe fo.xliiii.
for the swellynge of the brest fo.xliiii.
For paynes in the brest fo.xlb.
for straytnes of the brest fo.xlb.
To purge the breste fo.xlb.
for the breste that is combred fo.xlb.
For the stomake that is colde fo.xlbi.
for swellyng of the stomake fo.xlbi.
For the pappes that do renne fo.xlbi.
for heate in the breste. fo.xlbii.
For to breke flewme of the brest fo.xlbii

Tabula.

For a feuer in the stomake fo.xlviii.
for womans pappes that are rancled. folio. xlviii.
For cāker in womās pappes fo.xlviii.
for Gnawynges in the brest fo.xlviiii.
¶ For deseases in the syde. fo.xlix.
For ache vnder the syde fo l.
for the lyuer and longes fo.l.
For the Splenne fo.l.
for Stoppynnge of the splene fo.l.
For deseases in the wombe. fo.l.
The costiuenes of a sokyng chylde fo.lii.
for a woman that bathe many flowers. folio. lii.
For a woman that is swellenge in hyr bely. fo.lii.
To stoppe a great flyxe fo.lii.
for them that be broken to hele without cuttynge. fo.lii.
For an olde man that is bruysed fo.liii.
Incuruytynes fo.liii.
for wormes in the bely fo.liiii.
For the flexe fo.liiii.
for the fūdement that goeth out fo.liiii.
For wormes in the woumbe. fo.liiii.
for the Emerodes fo.lvi.
For an impostum in the body fo.lvii.
for an Impostum or fystche in a man or in a woman. fo.lvii.

Tabula.

For the wormwewe fo.lix.
For paynes in the backe fo.lx.
For a marmoll fo.lxi.
For the [illegible]enason fo.lxii.
For the Iaundes fo.lxii.
For a Tetter fo.lxiii.
For the feuer quartayne fo.lxiii.
For the bote cuyl fo.lxiii.
For the feuers & Impostumes fo.lxiii.
For the feuer quartayne fo.lxiii.
For a Canker or fester. fo lxbi.
For Waynes broken, fo.lxbiii.
To stauche blode whan a mayster vayne is cutte. fo.lxix.
For swellyng of hãdes or legges fo.lxx.
To hele dyuers woundes. fo.lxxi.
Agaynst the Pestylence. fo.lxxii.
Spices and olde sores. fo.lxxiii.
To flee Scabbes or Wermayne fo.lxxbii
For Scabbes. fo.lxxbii.
For the Paulay. fo.lxxix.
For the Dropsy. fo.lxxix.

FINIS TABVLE.

¶ Howe thou shalt make Aqua vite.

NOwe in the begyn nyng fyrst I wyl make perfyte to you the com posycyon of Aqua vite
the whiche is called in Englyshe water of lyfe. Fyrst fyl a pot of olde red wyne clere & stron and do there in pouder of Ca gylofer. ginger, pelitory nuteg Galyngale spyguerd, maces, cu byles, graines of Paris, longe pe per, blacke seremōtell, comyn, fe uell sede, Smalage, persly, sa myute, rewe, calamynte, and showe of eche of the lyke mache beware that they dyffer nat the waygbt of a drauu vnder or abou at ỹ moste. The waygbt of a d is two pens halfpeny that pu the aboue sayd pouders in and after put them in a lytell and dystyll it with a lokte fyre, and loke ỹ thy stylliatory be well clay-med: so that no fumosyte go out, & loke that thy fyre be good cole, also receyue thy water out of a Lem-becke in a vyall of glas. Thys wa ter is called the water of lyfe and it maye be lyckened to bame & put in the stede of bame naturall for it hathe all the natures of kynde of bame and all the vertues therof & therfore Pheloſophers do name it the seconde bame. This water is clere and lyghter thā the water of roses for it wyll flete aboue all ly-cours for yf oyle be put aboue this water, anone it leketh ỹ grounde Thys water kepeth flesshe, & fysshe both rawe and sodden in his owne kynde and state. Also as longe as a manne is with outen wemme or totynge yf he be washed therin, it helpeth greatly agaynste aches in the bones pockes and ſuche other And no maner of thynge ẏ is put therin may nat rot. Thys water of lyke dzaweth out the ſwetneſſe and ſauoure of al maner of ſpyces and of all rotes ẏ bene therin wetted oz layde. Alſo it gyueth ſwetneſſe to all maner of water that it is myn= gled w̄. And it is good foz all ma= ner of colde ſyckeneſſe, and namely foz the Palſy, foz quakynge of a mannes lymmes, & foz ſerchynge of a mannes ſenewes, & it is good agaynſt the colde gout, alſo it ma= keth an olde man to ſeme ponge alſo it ſtrengeth all maner of ſpy= rytes with in a mannes body whā that he hathe dzonken a quantyte therof faſtynge, alſo it openeth a mannes luſt by the whiche he may the better here. And on woundes it freteth awaye the dede fleſhe. Alſo it dyſtroyeth the Canker.

the

☞ For to make Claret and Pyment.

¶ Take bloues of gylofer, quibyles, maces, canell, galyngale, and make pouder, & temper it w̄ good wyne, & the thyrde parte of houy & cole it thrōughe a clothe. And for nede ye may make it of good ale.

☞ For to tell of .iii. precyous waters ỹ Ipocras made and sent thē to a quene that sometyme was in Englande.

The tyrste water is this Take fenell, rewe, veruen, endyue, betayne, germāder, red rose, capillꝰ veneris, of eche an vnce, & stāpe thē & stepe thē i whyte wyne a daye & a nyght, & dystell water of them. The water shall departe in thre. The fyrst part ye shal do in a vyal of glas by it selfe, and knowe ye of trueth ỹ this water is as precyous as golde, the seconde as syluer, the

thyrde

thyrde part as precyous as baume & kepe these thre cartes in glasses. This water shall ye gyue to ryche for golde, to meane mē for syluer, & to poze for baume. Thys water kepeth the eyes in clerenes, and boydeth the Mutery and Gounde and sharpeth the syghte.

☞ The seconde water.

¶ To the seconde water, take salgemme a poūd & lappe it ī a greue docke lefe & lay it in ỹ fyre tyll it be well rosted & ware whyte & putte ī a glas agaynst ỹ ayer a nyght & at morowe it shalbe turned to whyte water lyke vnto crystal. Kepe this water well ī a glas & do a drope in thy eye & it shal clense & sharpe thy syght. And it is good for ỹ euyll at the herte, & for the Mortewe & for sauceflewme and for the cāker in the mouth, & for other euyls in ỹ body.

☞ The thyrde water.

¶ The thyrde water is as folo-weth take the tote of fenell, perſely monache, endyue, betayne an vnce and fyrſt waſſhe thē well in lewke water and brayse them well & than ſtepe thē well in whyte wyne a day and a nyght, and than dyſtyl them in to water. Thys water is moze wozth than bame. It kepeth much ſyghte & cleanſeth it of all fylth and refrayneth teres, and conforteth the hed, & voydeth the water that cōmeth by ache in the hed.

☞ The fourth water.

¶ The fourth water is thys take the ſede of perſely, ache annys ca-reawaye betuayne. Ah. z. Centory Gally. r. drammes, & bete all theſe to pouder and do it in warme wa-ter by a day and a nyght, and do it in a veſſel for to dyſtyll. This wa-ter is a precyous water for all ſore eyes and very good for the health of mannes bodye, oz womans.

¶ The fyfte water.

¶ The fyfte water is fuche, that with it you may do many meruey-lous thynges. Take Lymel of fyl-uer Golde Latyn Coper Irone Stele and leade. And take lytage of golde and fyluer, and take Ca-mamell and columbyne and flepe all togyther in the vryne of a man chylde that is made by a daye and a nyght. The fecounde day i whyte wyne. The thyrde daye in the ioyce of fenell. The fourth daye in the whyte of egges. The fyfte daye in womans mylke that nozyfheth a man chylde. The fyxte daye in red wyne. The feuenth daye in whyte of egges, and vpon the eyght days blende all thefe togyther & dyftyll the water of them and kepe thys water in a veffell of gold oz fyluer. The vertues of this water is thys fyrst distroyed meselry and doth awaye all maner of sykenes of the eyes, ỹ perle, ỹ skōme of the teares & the quyters, & draweth agayne into theyr owne kynde the eye iyndes ỹ bene blered. And it slaketh ỹ ache of the hed. And if a mā drynke it kepeth hȳ vysage lōge to be yong There is no mā ỹ can tell halfe the vertues of this water.

The syxte water.

¶ The syxte water is this. Take a stone that the golde smythes do vse in theyr craft, & do it in the fyre tyll it be red as a rose, and slecke it in a pynte of whyte wyne, & do so. ix. tymes, and after grynde it and bete it small & clense it clene as ye maye, and after set it in the sonne with water dystylled of fenell, barneyne roses, selodyne & rewe and a lytel of the water of thyne lefe, and whan ye haue sprynckled it in the water.ix.oz ten tymes, do it than in a vyall of glas, & yet vpon the reuercyon of thy water dystyl it tyl it passe ouer the touche foure oz.v. ynches, and whā ye wyll take of it styze all to gyther with a styce, and than take vp a dzoppe w̄ a fether and do it on thy nayle, & it abyde, than it is fyne and good, thā do it in a eye that is rynnynge, oz in the eye that may nat well se, oz anoynt thy heed that aketh therwith and the temples, and of a trueth of all waters that are this is moste pzecyous and helpynge foz syght and foz the ache in the heed.

❧ Foz the clereneſſe & the syght of the eyes.

☞ If thou wylte lerne to make water lumberde the whyche is good foz foze eyes, take fenell, betuen, roſes, ſelondyne, and rewe of eche.ij. vnces and dyſtyll water water of them, for thys water is hollome for all maner of sore eyes.

versus.

Fenticulus, rosa veruens celodonia, ruta.
Extitis fit aqua, que lumina reddit acuta.

¶ Another for the same.

℞ Gather red snayles, & sethe thē in clene water & gather of thegrese and do it in a vyall & anoynt there with thyne eyes erely in the morninge, and late in the euenynge.

☞ Another to clarify the syght of the eyes.

¶ Take the red Roses Smalage Rewe Veruayne, Maydēhere eufrage Endyue Wegrene Hylwoze red fenell Celydony of eche a quarteron and washe them clene and lay thē in good whyte wyne a day and a vyght, & than dystell thē, the fyrste water wyl be lyke golde, the

ſeconde lyke ſpluet, and the thyzde lyke baume, and thys water is foz all maner of loze eyes foz a webbe perle, oz hawe.

❧ Another foz loze eyes.

❧ Take Smalage Fenell Rewe Veruane Egrymony Betayne ſcabyous Auence Houndeſtronge eufrage Pympernell redde Roſes & Sage, dyſtell all theſe to gyther with a lytel byzne of a man chylde and.b.graynes of frankencens & dzope the water at nyght in ỹ eyes and they ſhalbe hole by the grace of God.

❧ To make a water called maydens mylke.

☞ Take Lytarge in pouder & let it boyle ouer the fyze in venyger, than take it fro the fyze and dyſtyl a water therof & kepe it in a veſſel than take as much weyght of ſandyuer and do it in the ſame maner put it in clere water and styll it as thou dyd before the other, but beware that ỹ dystyl them nat in one styllatory, for ye do, the laste water wyll be loste, excepte that they be very well washed. And whan these waters be made eche by hym selfe, put a drope of the water to the other water and it wyll be as it were crudded mylke. Thys water is good for to make a nesshe skyne and for to make the bysage fayre and shynynge, & it is good for all tyspynges in mānes yarde & for the canker and sawce fleme and many other sekenes of the body.

☞ Another for the eyes.

℞ Take Egrymony, the leues of veruene, of fenell, of rue and of roses, and put them in a stillatory & spryng on them good whyte wyne and dystyll it. This water is good for swellynge of a mannes eyes that that commeth of colde and foz ble-red eyes and also foz eyes that be wofynge. Also it is good foz the payne of the eyes. It cleareth the syght. And thou wylt that the water be stronger, do to it the leues of galytrium and another herbe that is called Wozfus gallyne, that is to saye in englysshe chycke wyse, it bereth a red floure.

☞ Foz the payne in a mans eye.

❧ Take and dystemper Alum and pouder of mynt togyther and of theyz water put a dzoppe in the eye at euen whan thou gost to bed, and another in the mozynge whā thou rysyst

☞ Another foz soze eyes.

¶ Take floures of an hauthoznes & floures of ỹ wythy & make a water and thys water is good foz the syght

syghte in the eye & for the rednesse in the eye & for bysynynge gowte & for eyes ỳ leyghtly do water & for webbes in ỳ eye of a mā or woman

A good water for mannes syght.

Take Sage Fenell Veruē Betayne Egremony Sanatumde Camebere eufrasie pympernell Herkoyle and Rewe of all these lyke much and grynde thē in a morter. After ỳ take poudet of Alume and a lytell Camfere & myngle them to gyther with Eurose and dystell it & knowe you of a truth that this water is profytable for all cuyls of ỳ eyes and restoreth the syght that hathe bene almost lost by the space of thre yeres.

Water of Copporas.

Take copporas and grynde it to pouder, & do a lytell water to it, and let it stāde a daye and a nyght and and cole it thzoughe a clothe, thys water is good foz the eyes and foz the Canker in the mouthe and foz nolt me tanger in the bylage.

☞ Water of Betayne.

¶ The water of Betayne is good foz loze eyes, & foz the ache in ȳ hed

☞ Another foz the same.

¶ Take turmétil, whyphoz & Uer uayne & walshe thyne eyes therw.

☞ A good water and a pzecyous foz to clere a mannes syght and to dystroye the payne in the eyes.

☞ Take the red Rose & Capillus veneris fell Rewe Ueruayne Eufrage Betayne calampnte of eche lyke muche so that ye haue vnder all. vi. handfull & let them reste in whyte wyne a daye & a nyght. The secõde day dystell it in a stylla tozy. The fyzste water that ȳ doste styll it shalbe lyke colour of golde. The seconde of Syluer. The thyzde of

Baine

Baume. And thys water is called the precyous water ỹ is for ladyes

☞ Another water for sycke eyes.

¶ Take good red wine & Comyn and salt, and put it in a pot: and set vpon the pot & Lempecke, & stope it fast aboute with good past, and make a slow fyre of cole. The fyrst water that is dystelled is good for all colde sykenes in the eyes of mā or woman. The seconde water is good for all maner of hote maladyle of the eyes.

☞ Another for the same.

☞ Take and fyll a pot of thycke dregges of good ale to the thyrde dele, and put thetto a handefull of Comyn and salte and put a Lembecke on thy pot, & stop it aboute with paste and dystyll a full precyous water for eyes.

☞ Sal gemme.

The water of Sall gemme is good foz to clēse the fylth of a mannes eyes, & it is good foz the Mozfewe and foz saucyflewme. And is is good foz stynkynge hommes & foz the stynke of tye armepyttes of a man. Also take a pounde of Sal gemme and wynde it in Coleleues and do it in the hote alches & let it there sethe in his owne kynde tyl it be turned to whytenes. After that lay it on a marble stone a day and a nyghte, and that that goeth ouer therof wyll be a syluer colour Than take that and kepe it in a glasse, and whā nede is do a dzope in that eye that is soze.

¶ Foz all cupls of the eyes that bene ted of blode.

Take the mylke of a Kowe and anoynte thyne eyes therwith.

¶ Foz the Tey of the eyes.

Temper Acuēt with hony & a lytell of the whyte of an egge, and laye it to thyne eyes whan ỹ goest to bedde. Also the gall of an hare temper it with hony & it is good therfore.

☞ Another medycyne for sore eyes.

¶ Take pure glayze of egges and Hony and Arment well grounden togyther and do it to the eye, with herdes of lynen.

☞ Another for the same.

☞ Take the ioyce of Egremonye with the whyte of an egge & myngle thē togyther in Cotten or in a lynen cloth & laye it to thyne eye.

¶ For the hawe in the eye.

☞ Take Peper and stampe it to pouder take the mary of a gose ỹ is olde of the wynges & myngle it togyther and do it in a clothe and brenne it to pouder and do therof in the eye.

For

☞ Foz thē that may nat se oz them that haue blered eyes.

❧ Take Gynger and rubbe it on a whetstone into a fayze balon and put therto asmuche salte & temper it in wyne with the toyce of Eufra ge and let it stande a nyght and a daye & than take the ryude oz the clereneſſe that houeth aboue and put it in a glas and with a fether whā thou goeſt to bedde, oz as ofte as thou lyeſt the downe to ſlepe anoynt therwith thyne eye lydes wīn & without, and ÿ ſhalt be hole.

❧ Foz loze eyes anoyt= ment pzoued.

☞ Take venyger and put it in a clene balon than take the floures of plumbys and myngle all to gy= ther and let it ſtande thze dayes and thze nyghtes couered thā put it in a boxe and anoynt thyne eyes within and without.

❧ Another for the same.

*Take rawe creme made of Ewes mylke and put it abrode an the botom of a fayre scowred balon, than take a vessell that hath stande w̄ ale. vi. or. vii. dayes, and poure out the ale and whelme the pot or vessell ouer the balon all a nyght, than put it in a boxe tyl thou nede it, for this is good.

❧ Another for the same.

☞ Take whyte Gynger, made in pouder as fyne as may be & put it in a fayre balon that is fayre. Thā take Eufrage and a lytell salt and stampe them to gyther and put the joyce to the Gynger & let it stande all a nyghte & on the morowe skete of the ryme aboue and put it in a glas and anoynt thyne eye lyddes therwith whan thou goest to bed.

☞ Another for the same.

❧ Take the red Snayles that be with

with out houses and sethe them in water and after that bzenne them on a hote tyelstone and make pouder of them and medle the pouder with the satte that noueth aboue the water, & whan ÿ goest to bedde anoynt therwith thyne eye lydes.

❧ Foz blered eyes.

¶ Take the ioyce of wozmwode & medle it with water made of the whyte of an egge & put it to thyne eyes and it shall put the blode and skynge awaye.

❧ Another foz the same.

¶ Take celodony, Rewe, cozsyll, plantayne, annes, and almuche of fenell as of all other herbes, and stampe thē in a newe earthen pot and let it stande .ti. dayes and two nyghtes, and than strayne it and anoynte thyne eyes in ÿ euenynge and in the moznynge.

¶ Foz a pynne oz a webbe in ÿ eye

☞ Take an egge & roſt it harde & take the whyte all hote & put in as muche whyte copozas as a peese & all hote wzynge it thzough a cloth and let it dzope in to thyne eye one good dzope, & thys foz yonge and olde is pzoued a good medycyne.

* Foz eyes that be almoſt blynde.

☞ Take the ioyce of Houſtronge oz the ioyce of Centozy oz of the ioyce of Sanycle oz of the ioyce of Solſequtam and put any of theſe in thyne eyes that be almoſt blynd and it ſhall helpe them.

☞ Foz the eyes that be blaſted

☞ Take toty and Calampnt and waſſhe them with whyte wyne.ix. tymes, and than grynde them vpō a ſtone with ſome of tye whyte wyne and whyte goſe greſe, and Capons greſe and put therof in thyne eye erly & late foz thys hathe bene pzoued.

☞ Foz eyes ỹ be ful of ache & red.

¶ Take whyt Gynger and rubbe it on a whetstone into a bason and do therto as much whyte salte and grynde them well to gyther with a moloure stone and whan it is smal grounde do therto whyte wyne & than temper them well to gyther and let it stande so all a daye and at nyght thā poure out the thynne of that ỹ standeth aboue & do it in a byall and whan the seke goeth to bedde anoynt wel the eyes with a clene fether, and they shalbe hole foz this is pzoued.

☞ Foz eyes that do renne.

☞ Take red cole leke and anoynt it with the whyte of an egge beten wel & laye it to thyne eyes whan ỹ goest to bedde & let it lye all nyght and do so often and it shall helpe ỹ by the grace of God.

☞ Foz the eyes.

❧ Take Celondine and stampe it and tēper it with kayze water and dzynke it thze dayes & it shall hele thy heade, and thyne eyes shall be bzyght euer after.

☞ Foz the perle in the eye at the fyzste.

¶ Take whyte Gynger ẏ is good and fyne & rubbe it on a whetstone of Nozwaye in to a sauser of peuter & put therto whyt wyne, but let it be muddye of the Gynger and with a fether do it into thyne eyes & let the seke vse this tyl he be hole

❧ A pzecyous water foz eyes.

¶ Take Fenel, Rewe, Celydony, Veruayne, Eufrage, Clarray, Rosen, oz the water of Rosen & stãpe thẽ by the space of a naturall daye in whyte wyne, and than put all to gyther into a Lambecke, & dystell a water therof. This is called the water of maister Peter of Spaine it clary-it clarifyeth and comfozteth the eyes greately.

❧ Foz the ache in the eyes.

¶ Galyen techeth vs to take Ceruce well whalshen.viii.dzammes Sacacol.iii.dzãmes, Amidum.iii. dzammes, Dzagagati.i.dzamme, Opium.i.dzãme and a halfe, pouder them well & sotelly and make thẽ sokte on a tyleſtone with rayne water, and make small Trocykes of them, and whan it is nedefull unyngter it fozth.

❧ The resolucyon of humy dytes of eyes.

¶ In the ende of Obtalmya men of that countre do vie this water, foz it resolueth & dzyeth the straũg humytyes that fallen in the eyes. Take Tutte repertrate Calomyne and.xv.dzãmes of cloues.i.dzãme of Hony combe with the hony and ỹ shalbe made to pouder, pouder it sotelly and put them all in.ii.dzam mes of whyte wyne and halfe a quarteron of water of Rose and Camfere a dzamme, cole them and sotelly make a colour therof.

☞ The pouder of mayster Peter de villa noua.

This pouder dzyeth teres and rectifyeth redneſſe of the eyes, and was made for bysshop Johñ, take Thutie reparate one dzãme Antymyne.i.dzãme & an halfe, Wartotye pereleſſe.ii.dzammes, flowze of red Cozall.i.dzamme & halfe rawe syke & namely of the Peroke of ỹ syke wozme cut it as small as it may be halfe a dzamme & make as sotil a pouder as may be made ther of, and kepe it in a bare of metall.

* Of pouder called Bonauẽture.

This pouder is good for al maner of spottes in ỹ eyes Take.i.dzãme of suger Candye Thutie reperate halfe halfe a dzamme, pouder them and passe thē with water of Roses and sparcle them a bzode in a basō and reuerseth the bason vpō the fume of lignum Alos ℥ of frankencens and dzye it and pouder it sotelly & kepe it in a boxe of bzas oz peuter and put it in the eyes with a penlet of Syluer.

¶ Foz rednesse of the eyes ℥ teres Guydo bleth to take a dzamme of Thutie reperate Aloenatozum halfe a dzamme, Camfer. i. dzāme, water of Rosen a pounde and a halfe wyne of Pongarnade halfe a pounde that shalbe poudzed pou-der it sotelly and myngle it with the other and chafe it vpon hote coles with a lytell boylynge, than cole it and kepe it.

☞ A pzeryous pouder foz a webbe in the eye.

¶ Take two dzammes of Thutie reperate

repatate & of Sandzagó.i.dzãme of Suger one dzamme, & braye the well togyther tyl it be ryght small, and take that poudet and cast it in to the eye without any perpll a lytell atones, foz thys medycyne is pzoued.

☞ Another souerayne medycyne foz the eyes.

¶ Take Celodony, Egremonye, Veruepne, Endyue. Aũ. M. i. and of strawberys a good dyschefull & tedde Fenell asmuche as of all the other, stepe all these togyther in whyte wyne and than stylle it in a stylatozy and put it in to a glas & take therof whan nede is.

☞ Another foz the eyes.

¶ Take a stone that is called Petra calaminaris. And a stone that is called Thutte & than loke that thou haue fyne Oley a quarte and put it in a pece of Syluer oz Peuter & do therto thze peny weyght of Camfere, and than take the stones and laye them on a newe tyle stone and bzenne thē in the fyze.ix.times and euery tyme quenche thē in the wyne with the Camfere, & so shall the Camfere, be gotten out in to ȳ wyne, and than loke thou haue a marble stone and a moloure and grynde Petra calaminaris and Thutte theron small and put it in to the Oley that ȳ same stone was quenched in, and se it be thynne and after put ȳ water into a glas, and kepe it and whan thou shalte occupy it, shake the glas tyll it be thycke, and let the man oz woman that is dyseased w̄ perle oz webbe oz any other dysease that is curable, let the pacyent lye vpzyght & put in his eye a dzope and let hym lye foz the space that one may go a myle, and kepe hym well frō quesy

meates

meates, and dzynkes and by the grace of god he shalbe hole. Take out the Camfere out of the Oley whan the stones haue bene quenched.xx.tymes therin, and kepe it for it wyll serue for other saues.

Another for sore eyes.

¶ Dzynke yslope & oculus chzisti tempzed with stale ale, and it wyll destroye it in the begynnynge and suffer it nat to waxe.

Another if the eye be hurt with thorne, or stoble or other thynge.

¶ Stampe Mouslere and dzynke the toyce therof and laye thze dzoppes vpon the eye, and stampe egrymony & laye it in the hynder parte there agayne.

For the webbe in the eye.

Grounde yue destroyeth the webbe in the eye well and soberly and it be put in ones a daye it wyll destroye it.

☞ Another foz loze eyes.

☞ Take Centozy and make ther of a lectuary with hony & let it be well thycked and so eate thou ther of. It is good foz the stomoke, & it wyll make a man to haue good talente to yis meate. If Centozye be stamped & tempered vp with hony it is rycht good foz loze eyes.

☞ Another foz loze eyes.

¶ Galyen sayeth if ỹ take Vyolettes Wyz and Safron, & make of thē a playster, & laye it to thy loze eyes if they be greate oz swollen it shall ease the ache and swellynge.

☞ Another foz maladyes in the eyes.

☞ The water of Fenell is good foz the maladyes in the eyes.

☞ Another foz the ozdure of the eyes.

The

☞ The ioyce of the rote of Fencll medled well w̄ Hony dothe awaye all maner of ozdure of eyes.

¶ The rote is good foz ỹ dzopsye And the lede is good foz olde men to clarykye theyz syght. And ỹ ioyce therof destroyeth lechery.

☞ A souerayne medecyne ỹ helpeth a mannes syght and purgeth and clarykyeth hys eyes be they neuer so blered.

☞ Fyrste thou shalte take a good quātyte of howsleke & stampe it in a mozter and wzynge out the ioyce clene and put it in a bzode vessell a day & a nyght tyl it be clere, & than poure out the clere fro the thycke. Than take .xx. egges and sethe thē as harde as ye maye. Than cleue eche egge as hote as ye maye and take away the yolke of euery egge & set it vpzyght all hote as it were in the whyte of the egge, with the yolke

polke in the shell in whete bzanne, and fyll it full of the sayde water of howsleke and to serue all the eg-ges, whyles the water lastes, and let them stande so a day & a nyght, at the least a daye & put it in dyuers Than take the sayde water & put in thyne eyes oz walshe them with a clothe in this water ctaly & late,
Also take a culuer and let it bleed on the right vayne vnder ỹ wyn-ges and anoynte thyne eyes with the blode .x. dayes & .x. nyghtes & moze if it be nede, foz thys medecyne hathe bene proued many tymes.

¶ Foz letteynge of blode to saue a maunes syght

¶ Who that letteth the blode on the .xbiii. day of Marche on the right arme. And on the .xi. day of Apryl on the lyfte arme, they shall neuer be blynde foz this hath bene proued.

☞ For lettynge of blode there be thre perylous dayes in the yere.

¶ There bene thre dayes in ỹ yere in the which no mã shulde let hym blode, neyther for infyrmytes nor yet none other euylles nor these dayes to take no dr̃ynkes thoughe they be medycynable. These bene the dayes folowynge. The laste daye of Apryl. The fyrst mondaye of August. And the last monday of Decẽbre. These thre dayes be forbyden, for thã bene all the vaynes full of blode of euery mã. And yf a mã or womã be letté blode on these dayes, they shall dye within .xv. dayes. And ye shal take any medicyne in the aboue sayd dayes for any maladye you shall dye shortly after also yf ye eate any grose flesshe in ỹ aboue sayd dayes you shal dye within .xv. dayes after or els be mesel.

☞ Thre good dayes.

Thre

¶ Thre other good dayes there be to be let blode in for ỹ Feuer. Who that letteth hym blode on these.iii. dayes he shall haue no Feuer.

❧ That is to saye, the.xv. day in the endynge of May. The.xviii. daye in the begynnynge of March And the.iiii. day in the endynge of Maye who that letteth hym blode on the.xvii. daye of Marche, he shall haue no Feuer ne Tyspke, who letteth hym blode one the.iii. daye of Apryll he shal haue no hed ache. Who that letteth hym blode on the.xvii. daye of December or September or on Saynt Lãbertes day, he shal nat fal in no dropsye Fransy nor Tyspke, who that letteth hym blode on the.iiii. mondaye of July, or on the.ii. monday of October, he shall dye hastely, and all these hathe bene proued many tymes.

For lettynge of blode there be thre perylous dayes in the yere.
¶ There bene thre dayes in ỹ yere in the which no mã shulde let hym blode, neyther for inkyrmytes nor yet none other cuylles nor these dayes to take no drynkes thoughe they be medycynable. These bene the dayes folowynge. The laste daye of Apryl. The fyrst mondaye of August. And the last mondaye of Decẽbre. These thre dayes be for-byden, for thã bene all the vaynes full of blode of euery mã. And ther fore if a mã or womã be lette blode on these dayes, they shall dye with in .xv. dayes. And ye shal vse no medicyne in the above sayd dayes for any maladye you shall dye shortly after also if ye eate any grose flesh in ỹ above sayd dayes you shal dye within .xv. dayes after or els be mesel.

☞ Thre good dayes.

Thre

¶ Thze other good dayes there be to be let blode in foz ꝑ Feuer. Who that letteth hym blode on these.iii. dayes he shall haue no Feuer.

¶ That is to saye, the.xv.day in the endynge of May. The.xbiii. daye in the begynnynge of March And the.iiii.day in the endynge of Maye who that letteth hym blode on the.xbii.daye of Marche, he shall haue no Feuer ne Tylyke, who letteth hym blode one the.iii. daye of Apryll he shal haue no hed ache. Who that letteth hym blode on the.xbii.daye of December oz September oz on Saynt Lãbertes day, he shal nat fal in no dzopsye Fransy noz Tylyke, who that letteth hym blode on the.iiii.mondaye of July, oz on the.ii.monday of October, he shall dye hastely, and all these hathe bene proued many tymes.

Here foloweth al the dysseases of the hed that be within, as aches mygraines with many other necessary and profytable.

NOwe wyl I shewe you of the paynes in the hed. And fyrste for the ache in the hed Sethe Veruayne, and Wormwod, and wasshe thy hed with some of the water, or take lye of Veruayne, Betayne, Camamell, Sothernewood, and walshe thy hed therwith thre tymes in a weke.

Another for the same.

Seth Rewe & Fenell togyther, and walshe thy hed therwith, and make a playster of the herbes beten small with whete braune and bynde it to ỹ molde & make a garlande of thy kerchefe to kepe it in.

For all maner of hed ache

Take Veruayne, Betayne, Wormwod, Celidony, Walmort,

Rewe, and the barke of the Elder hony and Peper & all hole stampe them to gyther, & seth thē in water and dzynke it erly and late.

❧ Another foz the same.

☞ Wengle a sponeful of the toyce of Betayne with as muche wyne & almuche Hony & put the sayde. ix. peper cozues & dzike it. iiii. dayes.

❧ Another foz the same.

¶ Take Rewe, Uerueyne, Wozm wod, Sage, Walwozte, Heyhoue, red Fenell, Plātayne, the grene of the Elder betwene the barke & the tree of eche a handful, and walche them and stampe them small and do thē in a newe earthē pot with a potell of red wyne another of stale ale and sethe it to halfe but fyrst put therto a quarteron of an vnce of Pouder of Peper, and straine it thzoughe a clothe & dzynke ther. of. if. dayes. viii. sponefull at ones at euen hote, and in the morynge colde and washe thy hed with the lycour that folowyth.

☞ Another for the same.

¶ Take rewe, Heyhoue Betayne Vermayne, Myntes, Hyllwort red Fenell, Wormwode, Sothernwode of eche an handefull and washe them and shrede them small and sethe them in water in a earthen pot and washe thy hed with some of the water and mengle the herbes with whete brane and make a playster on the molde as hote as it may be suffered and make a garlande of a kercheffe to kepe it on and with fyue playsters, ꝑ shalt be hole on warranty se.

☞ For to clense the hed.

¶ Take and chewe pellatory of Spayne .iii. dayes a good quantyte and it wyll pyrge the hed well and put a waye the ache and faste the tethe. Dz dzynke the ioyce of Sage with ale and it shal ease the.

☞ To clense the hed, the brefte the stomake and to make one to haue good appetyte. Take .iii. handfull of Centozye and sethe it in a galon of water vnto a potell, and than clense it and put therto a pynte of clarykyed Hony and sethe it softly to a quarte and dzynke therof two sponeful at ones early in the mozrynge and late in the euenynge.

☞ Foz the vanyte in the hed.

¶ Take the ioyce of Walwozte, Salt, Hony, Ware, and Encence, and boyle them togyther and therwith anoynt thy temples

☞ Foz to ceale the ache and swellynge woundes that be foze in the hed oz in any other place so that the bones be nat broken.

* Take malowes, wozmwod, mugwozt, betayne, egrymony, Hylwozs of eche a handeful than walshe the and stampe them & put therto.iii. vnces of fayre whete flowre as moche hony & as muche barowes greece and stãpe them togyther and put therto red wyne and frye them and laye them warme to the sore, but lay a red cole lefe betwene the playsters and the wounde and it shall ease the ache and put awaye the swellynge.

☞ Howe you shall knowe if the brayne panne be broken.

¶ If the flesh be hole aboue take and shaue the hed there as the sore is, and double a lynnen clothe and spred on it the whyte of an egge & bynde it to a nyght and on the morowe take it flyle awaye, & loke yf the cloth be moyst or drye, for if it be moyste the panne is broken and in the same place kerue the flesshe and let the blode out and anoynte it with tt with a noyntmente made ther-foze, and thus shalt thou saue him oz els he is but deade.

¶ Foz the mygrayne in the hede & foz the postum in the hed foz the dzopsye in the hed, foz the feuer in the hed & foz all aches in the hed.
¶ The.iiii.peny weyght of ỹ rote of pelatozy of Spayne, a halfpeny weyghte of Spygnarde & grynde them and boyle them in good Wy-neger, & whan it is colde put ther-to a sponefull of Hony & a sawcer full of Mustarde and mengle the well togyther, and holde therof in thy mouth a sponefull at ones as longe as a man may saye two cre-des and than spyte it out into a vessell and take noze and do so. ij.
oz.x. tymes togyther. Fyrste after thou hast dyned at none and after none at the goynge downe of the sonne & whan thou goest to bedde and washe thy mouth and dryncke and go to bedde and vse thys medecyne thre dayes & thou shalte be hole for thys is proued.

¶ Another for the same.

¶ Take Galigale halfe an vnce, Gynger an vnce and an halfe, of Nutmegges, a quartron of a vnce of Cloues, a peny weyght, of the floure of Canell a peny weyghte Spyknarde a halfepeny weyght, of Annes a quarteron of an vnce, of Elenacampana halfe an vnce, of Lycoryse halfe an vnce, and asmuche of Suger and bete them al togyther & vse of that pouder fyrst and last a sponefull at ones.

¶ Another for the same.

¶ Take Betayne, sage, red myntes, red fenell of eche .iii. croppes and eate them .viii. dayes or .xiiii. dayes & after take the grene rynde of the Elderstycke of one yere growyng growynge, and put the iuyce ther-of into thyne nose thze dayes thze tymes a daye lyenge vpzyght by the space of a myle.

❧ Foz all maner of euyll aches in the hed.

¶ Temper Rewe, and Aysell and smere thy hed therwith.

☞ Another foz the same.

¶ Take Betayne, Varoyne, Wozmwode, Waybzede, Rewe, Walwozte, Sage, the barke of the Eldertre. iii. cozues of Peper and temper thē well to gyther in wyne & dzinke therof eche day a dzaught scly and late tyll it be well.

☞ Another foz the same.

¶ Take the gal of an Hare & tem per it with Hony euenly & anoynte therwith thy temples.

❧ Another foz the same.

¶ Dzynke Bulpall and stampe it with

with his flowre in lyke warme water or in wyne.

☞ Another for the same.

¶ Take the grece of a harte and blended it with Barly mele & fozel and bynde and tẽper all togyther and playster it to thy temples for thys hathe beue proued a ryght good medycyne.

☞ To purge the hed.

¶ Take the toyce of pzymrose & the mylke of a knowe and with a penne blowe it in to thy nosethzylles and it shall purge the hed and make the hole.

☞ For the ache in the hed.

¶ Camamell is good for the bzen nynge Feuer that holdeth a man or a woman in the hed.

☞ For the Wozme in the hed.

¶ Calampynte is good for to slee
the Wozme in the hed.

¶ For ache in the hed.

¶ Fenell sodde in water swageth the ache in ỹ hed of a mã oz wou̅ whã the hed is walshen therwith.

¶ Another foz the same.

¶ Take Sage, Betayne, Wozm wod, Rewe, and Heyhoue, of ethe lyke much, and sethe them in fayze water and whan they be well sodden poure out the water in to a fayze clene vessell and than take ỹ grynde ỹ herbes in a mozter smal. and than take some therof ỹ some of that lycoure and temper them well togyther ỹ do therto a pozcyō of whete bzanne to holde in that lycoure and in the remnaūt of the lycoure walshe the hed of ỹ pacyēt as hote as ye may suffer it and thā laye the fozsayde playster in the molde as hote as ye may suffer it, and bynde it on surely fozfallyng awaye, and let it lye so a daye and a nyght without remouynge, and with.iii.playsters and.iii.washyn ges, thou shalte be hole & thy hed ake neuer so sore.

☞ For the mygrayne.

¶ Take halfe a vnce of galynga le and an vnce of Synger, & halfe a vnce of Nutmeggys and a quar tron of an vnce of cloues & a peny weyght of Annes, and a quartron of an vnce of Elena campana and halfe an vnce of Lycorys, & halfe an vnce of Suger & bete all these togyther and let the seke vse thys powder fyrste and laste a spouefull at ones, & within.iiii.dayes thou shalte be hole, for Galyen the good phylosopher vseth thys medecyne.

¶ Herefoloweth a water to breke the Rewme in the hed and to put a waye the pose.

☞ Take a red Onyon and breke it small & sethe it in a lytell Ayell, and

and afterwarde put therto a lytell Hony clarifyed, and whan they be well sodden togyther put therto a good great sponeful of Mustarde and than let it sethe longe all togyther, than laye the seke vpryght and put a lytell of the water in to his nose & let hym stande vpryght and anoynte therwith he shal nese, do this thre dayes euery day two tymes and he shall be hole by the grace of God.

❧ For the mygrayne a true medycyne.

¶ Take of Bole armonyake one parte, of Sandragon two partes, and Mastycke thre partes, and make thē in pouder all smal and take ỹ whyte of a egge newe layde and swynge the pouder and it togyther and laye it on a lytell Flaxe & laye it to thy temples by the eye.

¶ Another for the same.

Take

Take the gall of an Hele that is of one colloure and Comyn that is newe and well sykred, rubbe well and clene the nayles therof & after make a pouder therof, and what it is warme strowe alwaye ỹ pouder of Comyn in it, yll it be so thycke that ye maye make a playster therof and laye it on the hed of the pacyent & sone he shalbe eased for this is proued medecyne.

A soueraygne medycyne for the Pygrime.

Take Galyngale halfe a dr̃ame Synger a dr̃amme Nutmegges halfe a dr̃amme Cloues .i. dr̃ames Annes a dr̃amme, Elena cãpana .i. dr̃ames lycoryce halfe a dr̃amme Suger halfe a dr̃ame, and make all these in pouder sorelly and let the pacyent vse therof fyrste and laste a sponefull at ones wyth in foure dayes he shalbe holé syckerly for foz Galyen the good Phyloſopher vſed this medycyne.

¶ Foz to reſtoze the bzayne

¶ Make a poudez of Betayne & vſe it in thy potage, & it wyl reſtoze thy bzayne & deſtroye the ſtone.

¶ Here after ſhall folowe ꝑ beſte remedyes that be foz deſnes of the eres oz foz tenynge of the eares, to euery man ryght pzofytable.

☞ A true medycyne foz deſnes of eares.

TAke Betayne and Hozhoūd and ſtampe the two in a mezter, and wzynge out the ioyce, and let the patyent lye on the ſyde, and poure it into his ere, & [illegible]

¶ Foz [illegible] eres.

¶ Vyoletes be good foz tynnyng geares.

¶ Foz a mā that may not [illegible]

¶ Take of a tree of an alle that is of a fote longe, & laye the vpodes therof in the eye and kepe the matter that commeth out of the eyes, and take ye iuyce of Rubarbe and wyne and the grece of a freshe ele, of all these take euen porcyon and myngle all togyther, and put it in hys eares whan he goeth to bed, & so do euery nyght tyll he be hole.

☞ Another for the same.

¶ Take an Urchyn and flee her, and rost her, & kepe the grece that droppeth of her in a platter, and put it in his eares & he shall meruel for thys hath bene proued.

☞ Another for the same.

¶ Take the gall of a wedder and Hony, of bothe lyke porcyon, and myngle them togyther, and put it in hys eares.

☞ Here after followeth good me-decynes for bledynge at the nose or in any other place.

I wyll

I Wyll that thou ſhalt take the roote of a Haſell tree growyng nyghe to the rote, & cut the croppe away, & with a knife take the tuyple parte of the ſame roote, and lay it to the wounde, & it wyll ſtaunce blode.

¶ Another for the ſame.

¶ Take Peruyncle and chewe it in thy mouth, and it wyll ſtaunche blode of thy noſe.

¶ Another for the ſame.

¶ Take Breapne and Salt, and myngle them togyther & put them in thy noſe, and they ſhall ſtaunche the blode.

¶ Another for the ſame.

¶ Take Cynkefoyle & temper it with wyne, and gyue it to hym to dryncke, & waſſhe hys face well, & he ſhall leſe the ſtynte of the peryll.

¶ Another for the ſame.

✝ Take ſhetles that chekins were hatched in, and brenne them, and make pouder of them and put the pouder in hys nose, and it shall staunche hym.

¶ For to staunche blode of a wounde.

¶ Take leues of Rewe & stampe them, and laye them on the wounde and it shall staunche it for thys is pzoued.

¶ Another for the same.

¶ Take a bzome stalke & scrape of the rynde and make a ball therof and do it in the wounde & bynde it wel with a clothe.

¶ Another for the same.

¶ Take salte & bzenne it on a tyle stone & make pouder therof, and put it in the wounde.

¶ Another for the same.

¶ Take and scrape that is bzenned of a caudzon or a bzasse pot & make pouder therof & do it in the wounde.

Another

¶ Another for the same.

¶ Take wourmes of the earth & bzenne them to pouder, and put it in the woumde.

¶ Another for the same.

¶ Take and dzynke the toyce of Ache and it wyll staunche bloude.

¶ Another medicyne for the same.

¶ Take a lynen cloth and bzenne it to pouder, and bynde it to the woumde oz vayne that is hurte.

¶ For bledynge agaynste kynde.

¶ Dzynke the toyce of Rewe, and take waybzode and Wyut and lay to the woumde and vayne that wyl not leue bledynge in a lynen cloth. and remoue it twyse a daye, and it shall hele eyther woũde oz vayne. for this hathe bene proued many tymes.

¶ To staunche bledynge at the nose.

¶ Bynde the temples of ȳ pacyet with a lyste about the hede, then so muche that the vaynes haue rede theyr course, and drynke the coyce of Smalage, and laye a pennirole lefe vnder the tonge, and it shall launche.

Another for the same.

Take the leues that growe vpon the hasell bowe, and make powder, & blowe it vp with nose with a goselquill, drynke the coyce of Plantayne and it shall launche anone.

To stop the fluxe of the woman shall lyue dayes.

Take the leues of grene of pennerell and gyue hym to drynke, and he cast it vp he is not curable, gyue hym to drynke it dayes, gyue pernell, Bugle, and Sanycle, to purge the wouche. And if wounde be on the heade and brayne panne rayned, thou gyue hym to drynke

no Saunycle, for that wyll perysshe the reye. Or gyue hym Sympeuel stamped with water to drynke and it cowe nat the wounde he shall lyue. Or gyue hym Lettuse stãped with water, & he spewe he shall dye. Or gyue hym Wouseere with ale & he holde it to ỹ other day the same tyme he shall lyue or els nat.

❧ Another for bledynge at the nose.

¶ Take the toppe of the Nettels and rubbe wel thy forhed therwith and it shall staunche it.

❧ Here folowyth medycynes for ache in the serne, also howe thou shalt make teche for to fal by theyr owne accorde and to make teche white, and fyrst for the rothe ache.

Moste it is vsed, & beste to take Allum & Brymstone & bren them on a fayre tyleston, and than make powder therof. And put so ponder of peper than stampe a clo ue of Garlyke small and medle all wyther and put it into small lyn nen bagge and laye it ouer the same eyne of the mouth with in, and it wyll do awaye the ache anone.

☞ Another for the same.

¶ Take hony and seth it ouer the fyre and scome it and put therto pouder of peper and sethe it tyll it be blacke, than take halfe a sage leke and laye the hony theron and laye it to the tothe.

☞ For the tocheache that cō meth of wormes.

¶ Take henbane sede, leke sede & pouder of encens and rytheles al eche lyke muche and laye it on a hote tyle stone glowyng hote and make a pype of lacyn the neyther ende so wyde, that it may couer the sedes and pouder & than holde ouer thy mouthe open ouer the other

other ende that the apet maye go into the soze tothe.

¶ Another for the same.

¶ Take the shauynge of the hattes hozne, and sethe it longe in water, and laye it into the soze tothe.

¶ For the totheache.

¶ Take Uenegar and Mustard Pouder of Peper, & of Pellatozye of Spayne, & the tozneli of Nutgall & boyle the all togyther. And the tethe be holowe put therof into the tethe ozels about the gummes hote and thou shalt be hote.

¶ For the tothe ache ozwoz wormes in the tethe.

¶ Take Peper and stampe it and temper it with good wyne & suppe therof warme and holde it in the mouth tyll it be colde & thanne spytte it out and do thus ofte & thou shalt be delyuered of all anguysshe.

¶ Another to make teth fast.

¶ Take hartes horne and brenne it, and put the asshes therof in a lynnen clothe, and laye it to thy rotten teethe, and it shall make them faste.

¶ To make wormes to come out of the teethe.

¶ Take Henbane rede Pyne wall of the herbe, and wrynge hem, and make a candell therof, & holde thy mouthe ouer the candell brennynge that the smoke go vp into thy teethe, and do so ofte, and thou shalt se the wormes fall out before the, whan thou gost to bedde, but hoole grene, it shal do the good.

¶ Another to slee wormes in the teethe.

¶ Take the rote of Henbane, and bruse it, & laye it to the toothake, it eyther slayeth, or delyuereth the ache therof, and slee the wormes.

Another

make make a playster and lay it to the sore where that euer it be, & it shall swage and hele.

¶ Another medecyne for ȳ same.

¶ Take a quantyte of poudre of ginger and of poudre of Peper euen portyon, and sethe them in a poket of lynen clothe and wete the poket in a lytell Aqua vite & lay it vnto the sethe there as the ache is and it shall drawe oute all the malices of the ache.

¶ Another medecyne for the same

¶ Take burs & pastors and sethe them and the sethe braun & ryghe lyke bynde it vnder the eere fore & the ache be on the lyfte syde & vnder therygh fore & for to faste vnto that he hole.

¶ Take the barke of the tree that berith ȳ pome garnet & drye hym and of hym lybarum make crokes, & all maner potion and maket poudres.

and

and Temper it with Accole & put it in a small lynen cloth and laye it on the gommes without.

¶ To make tethe to fall by them selfe.

¶ Take a water frogge & a greue frogge and sethe them togyther and gather the greece, & smere therwith thy gommes about the tethe.

¶ Another foz the same.

¶ Take the talowe of a Ramme and playntayne and stampe them togyther & atoyute the tethe therwith and it shall fal out by it owne accozde.

¶ Foz clynkynge tethe.

¶ Take two handfull of Comyn and stampe it small and sethe it in wyne and gyue them to dynke .ix. dayes and it shal make them hole.

¶ Foz to make tethe whyte.

¶ Take Honye, Salt, & Rye mele, and myngle them togyther & frote thy thy teethe therwith and they shalbe whyte.

¶ Here folowth good medecynes for the payues in the mouthe, and first with them that haue lost theyr speche.

WHan thou haste lost thy speche, take the ioyce of Sothernewode, or of Sage or of Pympernel and put it vnder thy tonge. Or take worme wode and stampe it, and temper it with water, or with Hony and put it into the mouth of the pacyent, and he shalbe hole.

* For them that spewe in theyr slepe.

¶ Temper the leues of Rewe and Mell together, or the leues alone it is put some into hys nose thy shall.

¶ Another for the same.

¶ Take the ioyce of Sothernewood and temper it with wyne and drynke it when he goeth to bedde.

Another

☞ Another for the same.

¶ Take the croppes of rewe, and the croppes of Vernayne, of eche lyke muche; and dryncke the toyes therof whan thou goest to bedde.

☞ For them that dreme in theyr slepe.

¶ Take Vernayne, and hange it about the necke of the patyent, or gyue to the patyet the toyes therof to dryncke whan he goeth to bedde and it shall cease.

☞ For them that may nat slepe.

¶ Take the berys of a Lorell tre, and breke the in a morter, and laye them in a clouth all about hys hed and he shall slepe.

☞ Another for the same.

¶ Take Egremone & put it vnder the hed of any person, & he shall slepe tyll it be taken awaye.

☞ To kepe one from slepe.

Wythe

❧ Stampe a garlyke hed and the huske and the stele togyther to the thyrde parte and dryuke it.

☞ Another for the same.

¶ Take persly & Fenell togyther

❧ For them that spyte blode.

¶ Take swalache, wyntes, rewe, and Betayne, & boyle the in good wyne, and sup therof warme, and thou shalte amende.

❧ For hym that may nat eate.

¶ Take Wormwod, Wyntes, Sage, and myles of breade that is browne and of Coupn, of eche an handefull, stampe it small and put it in a lynnen cloth or bagge and were it in Wynyger and hete it as thou maye suffer, laye it to thy stomake, and it shall helpe the

¶ For the great hete in the mouth

☞ Take a pynte of water, and asmuche as a Nutte of whyte Alū, and aswuch of Sage, & a sponeful

of

of Hony and boyle all togyther, & walsche thy mouth with it.

❧ Foz the canker in the mouth.

¶ Cerefoyle is a maner of a wod-bynde and beareth a whyte flowze much lyke vnto ỹ lylye & it is hote and dzye in the lecõde degre, ſtãpe it & temper it with hony it is good foz the Canker in the mouthe.

¶ Foz euyl in the thzote oz mouth

☞ Take the leues of the whyte Vyne and boyle them in fayze wa-ter, & whan it is ryght wel boyled holde thy mouthe ouer, that ỹ ayze maye go into thy mouthe, ſtewe eyght well thy mouthe, and than ſuppe of the water and holde it in thy mouth tyl it be colde, and than put it out and take moze, and do ſo .iii. oz .iiii. tymes on a daye & vſe this, thze dayes togyther. Alſo do in lyke maner with the .b. leued graſſe, & vſe it .iii. oz .iiii. tymes on a daye and thre dayes togyther and it muste be sodded moze than the leke of the Wyne in fayze water and it shall hele hym.

¶ Foz a mā ẏ hath lost his speche

☞ Take the toyce of Sage, oz Pymrole, & put it in the mouthe of the pacyent, and he shall speake.

¶ Foz the Canker in the mouthe.

☞ Take Galyke, Recelle, Galyngale, Spygnarde, Gyloker, Canell, and a pece of wollen cloth, and bzenne of the one an vnce, and make pouder, & put therof in thy mouth, whā thou wylt speke, with whyte wyne, oz with the toyce of waybzode, and claryfyed Hony.

¶ Foz the Canker in a mannes mouth, in hȝ chekes oz in hȝ lyppes

☞ Take. viii. oz. xx. leues of sage, and stampe thē with a lytell Salt, and Alell, and make a playster and laye to it.

Here

¶ Here foloweth good medecynes foz them that haue ſtynkynge bzethe.

NOwe foz thē that haue ſtynkynge bzeth. Take the toyce of Hyſwoze, oz els take butter and the toyce of Hozſhoue, & the toyce of fetherfoye a tēper the with hony, and euery day gyue the pacyent a ſponefull.

☞ Another foz the ſame.

¶ Take two handes full of Comyn, and ſtampe it to pouder, and boyle it in wyne, & dzynke ỹ ſyzop. xb. dayes, and thou ſhalt amende.

☞ Another foz the ſame.

¶ Take Pulyall, and Wynte, and dzynke the toyce, and vſe Gynger, Canell, and Nutmegges, and loke well and be ſure that there be no rotten tothe.

¶ Foz ſtynkynge bzeth.

☞ Take two handefull of Comyne made in poudet, & sethe it in good wyne fro a potell to a quarte and dzynke at euen a lytell hote, but in the moznynge as hote as ỹ maye dzynke it, and ỹ must dzynke appynte in the euenyng, and in the moznynge, and with in .ix. dayes thou shalte be hole on warrantyse.

☞ Another foz the same.

¶ Take Pulyal of the moũtayne ỹ is called Hylwozt a good hãdful and washe it, and shzede it small, & grynde it small in a mozter, & put thertto halfe an vnce of Peper in poudet, and as mnche of Comyne in poudet, and sethe thẽ in a potell of wyne vnto a quarte, and vse it after meate and nat befoze, ons at after none and last at euen, alwaye hote, yet and thou take it fastynge it is good.

¶ Foz stynkynge bzeth ỹ cometh fro fro the bzayne out of the nose.

☞ Take red Wyntes and Rewe, of eche lyke muche, take the toyes therof, & at euen whan thou goest to bedde, put it into thy nose thyzyl-les, and lye so that it maye renne in to the bzayne.

❧ Foz good bzethe.

¶ Who that vseth to ete Wermen it maketh good bzethe, and doth awaye the stynke of the mouth.

❧ Foz stynkynge bzethe oz stynkynge nose.

¶ Take the toyce of blacke Wyn tes, and the toyce of Rewe, of eche lyke much, and do it in hys nose.

☞ Another foz the same.

¶ Take thze hādesful of Comyn and bete it small in a mozter, and put therto a potell of wyne, & lethe it tyl the halfe be wasted, & it rayne it thzough a cloth, & dzynke therof euery daye fyzst and laste, at euen and at mozowe, as hote as thou maye sufferr it & thou shalte be hole within.xv.dayes on warrantyse.

¶ Here after folowyth good medecynes foz to make a man to cast oz to perbzeake.

When ỹ halte a mynde foz to cast oz perbzake, take two partes of the ioyce of Fenell, & one parte of Hony, & sethe it tyll it be thycke, and dzynke ther of in the mozynynge, and in the euenynge, foz it is good foz the splene & the lyuer, & it remoueth the gutte

☞ Another foz the same.

¶ Take the ioyce of Stonecrop, foz it is good foz the same.

☞ Another foz the same.

¶ Take the ioyce of Spurge, foz it is good foz the same.

☞ Another foz the same.

Take

¶ Take Rewe, and temper it with wyne, and vse it somwhat warme.

❧ Another foz the same.

¶ Wyntes is good in the seconde degre, so sayth Galyen it cõfoztes the stomake, it restraneth bzakyng it is good foz the lyuer, & the longes. And it destroyeth wozmes in the wombe. And if a womã dzynke it with water, oz with hony, it shall make her to haue fayze deliueraũs of the chylde. ¶ Foz them that maye nat holde theyz meate.

❧ Take Hozshoue, and Hylwozt of euery lyke much, & washe them clene, & stampe thẽ, and put therto a pozcion of pouder of Peper, and sethe them well togyther in fayze clene water, & let the pacyẽt dzinke therof luke warme, fyzst and laste, and he shalbe hole of the malody.

❧ Here folowth good medecynes foz the colde and the coughe.

Take ysope, Rosemary, Plantayne and the rote of Radysh of eche a quantyte, and sethe them in wyne fro a potell to a quarte, & then take them downe and poure out the lycoure into the herbes in a morter and myngle them well together, and strayne them into the lycoure agayne into the potte and thā take a pynte of lyke Hony, and boyle it and cōme it & put therto a quarteron of Waye butter that is clarykyed, and than let it sethe by the space that one maye saye the Psalme of Miserere mei deus, thā take the vessell downe and strayne it throughe a lynnen clothe, & take that lycoure, and put it in a fayre vessell of glasse and let the pacyent vse therof fyrste and laste at euery tyme. viii. spoones full of stale ale warme tyll it be hole for thys is a proued medycyne.

For

☞ For the colde.

¶ Take the leve of the Nettell, & ſethe it in oyle, and anoynte thy fete therwith and thy handes, and it wyll do awaye the colde.

☞ For the coughe.

¶ Take Sage, Rewe, and Peper and ſethe thē with Hony, and eate therof a ſponefull fyrſt & laſt, tyl ỹ be delyuered of the ſayde dyſeaſe.

☞ Another for the ſame.

¶ Take Rewe, Sothernewod, & Roſemarye, of eche an handefull, and a quarte of clarifyed Hony, & a quarte of wyne, and ſethe them all togyther, and than ſtampe the herbes, & put thē in to the lycoure agayne & ſethe them a lytell, and than ſtrayne them & put ỹ lycoure into the glaſſe, and vſe therof. vi. ſponnes full of ſtale ale, at euen hote and at morowe colde.

¶ For a mā or woman that hathe greate sekenesse in the sydes, and may nat well drawe theyr wynde, nor coghe for payne.

℞ Take Pulyall of ỹ moũtayne, other wyse named Hylwoyte. Alysãder, Persly, Loueage, Smalage red Fenell, Burnet, Gromell of ethe lyke muche, and sethe them in whyte wyne tyll halfe be wasted, and thau strayne them and let the pacyent drynke therof hote, fyzite and faste.

℞ For the coughe.

℔ Take Sage, Rewe red Fenell, Ysope, Comyn, & the pouder of peper, of ethe lyke muche by weyght, and sethe thē togyther in Hony, & make therof a lectuary, & vse therof a sponefull at euen, and another in the mornynge.

℞ For the drye Coughe.

℔ Take halfe a pounde of Lycorice, & scrape away the barke, and stampe

ſtampe it in a moꝛter, & put therto a galon of good woꝛte, in a newe earthen pot, & an vnce of Suger, roſet well poudꝛed, & a quarteron of an vnce of pouder of Gynger, & a quarteron of a vnce of clarykyed hony, and ſethe them tyll halfe be waſted, & than ſtrayne it thꝛoughe a cloth, and put it in a clene veſſel, and let the pacyent vſe therof kyſt and laſte, at eueu hote, and in the moꝛnynge colde.

¶ Foꝛ ỹ cough a good medecyne ❧ Take a handeful of rewe, another of Sothetnewod, another of roſemary, a quarteron of clarykied hony, & a quart of wyne, & ſeth thē wel to gyther, & than poure out the lycoure, & ſkape ỹ herbes, thau put thē into the lycoure agayne & ſethe thē to gyther a lytl thā ſtrayne thē & put thy lycoure into a glas & let the pacyēt dꝛynke it kyſt and laſt.

A good

❧ A good medecyne for the dyse Coughe.

¶ Take a pounde of Lycorice, & scrape awaye the barke clene, than stampe it in a morter, and put it in an earthen pot, and put therto. iii. quartes of the best worte that thou can get, and an vnce of Suger, & a quarter of an vnce of pouder of Gynger, and a pynte of clarifyed Hony, and than sethe all togyther tyll halfe be wasted, & than straine it through a clene cloth into a fayre vessell, and than let the pacyēt ple therof fyrst & last, at euen hote, & in the morning colde, tyll he be hole.

❧ Another for the same.

¶ Take Annes sede, Smalage sede, and Violet sede, of eche lyke muche, and bete them all togyther in pouder, and temper them with wyne, as the quantyte gyueth, and sethe thē well togyther tyll it were thycke

thycke, and put it into a boxe, and let the pacyent vse to eate therof tyll he be hole.

☞ For the perylous coughe a good medecyne.

¶ Take the toyce of Sage, & the toyce of Rewe, of eche lyke muche, and a quantyte of Comyn, and as= much of the pouder of Peper, and sethe them all in clarykyed Hony, and so make a lectuary therof, and let the pacyēt vse therof .iii. spones full at euen & .iii. in the moznynge tyll it be hole.

☞ Another for the same.

¶ Take Sage, Rewe, red Fenel, Ysope, Comyn, and the pouder of Peper, of euery one lyke muche by weyght, and sethe them togyther in Hony, and make of them a lec= tuarye, and vse therof a sponefull at euen & another in the moznyng.

* Here folowith good medecynes for swellynge vnder the chynne, for stretnes in the pypes, for them that haue muche sycknesse, for the paynes aboute the herte, and for swellynge vnder the chynne.

WHan ỹ wylte haue swellynge fro vnder thy chynne take an horse, & ryppe the balocke, and gette blode therof, & anoynte it therwith, and lappe it and bynde it to all hote, & do so thre dayes togyther, & thou shalte be hole.

¶. For straytnes in the pypes.

¶ For straytnesse in the pypys or in the breste, take dyre Ysope rotes, and of elenacampana, of ethe an handefull, stykes of Lycorice scraped & sokte brosed .iiii. vnces & boyle it all togyther in a galon of temprynge water tyll halfe be wasted, than strayne it and with all the aboue sayde hote, put therto halfe a pynte of clarykyed Honye, and dzynke therof mylke warme, a good dzaught euery daye fyzste and laste.

the

¶ Foz a man oz woman that hath moche sekenes.

Take Hylwozte, Alysaunder, Persly, Lonage, red Fenell, Smalage, Buruet, and Gromel, of eche lyke muche, and put the herbes in whyte wyne, oz ale tyll halfe be wasted, and straine it and dzynke it at euen hote, & in the mozynge colde tyl thou be hole, it is pzoued.

¶ Foz the sekenes aboute the herte.

¶ Take Rosemary, ysop, Cētozy. Betayne, and Irys the whiche is a herbe lyke Gladen, but it hathe a blewe flowze, sethe them in fayze water, and straine the water, and the toyce of ỹ herbes, & put therto

Hony, & boyle it agayne & scomme it a lytell, and put therto asmuche butter as Hony in the sethynge, & myngle them well togyther, than take it downe & couer it well, and gyue the pacyent to dzynke therof, at euen hote, & in ỹ mozning colde.

☞ Another foz the same.

¶ Take. ir. croppes of Sage. ir. croppes of Ysope. ir. croppes of Wozmwod. ir. croppes of Tansy, ir. croppes of water Cresses, a quā tyte of sowze bzede, and a quantyte of Veneger and boyle all togyther tyl it be somwhat thycke, and than put it in a poket, and as hote as you may suffer it laye it there as it greueth you.

☞ Foz sekeues in the wombe and rylynge at the herte.

¶ Thou shalt take Persly rotes, and the stalkes of red Fenell, and washe them clene, and kāpe them in &

in a mozter, of either of thē a good platter full.

¶ Foz stopyng of the pypes of the hert & foz flewme a medecyne pzoued.

¶ Take a good boll ful of ỳ barlye and put therto a galō of clene wel water, and boyle thē togyther tyll ỳ Barly be softe as any whete foz Fourmenty, and than strayne them thzoughe a clene cloth, & thā take that water, and put therto as moch good wozte, ẅ a peny wozth of Licozice knocked but nat made in pouder, and a good handefull of ysope, and another of Sage, & boyle thē al togyther tyl one halfe of the Licozice be boyled in, than strayne that Licozice thzoughe a clene clothe, and that, that comes thzoughe the clothe, put it into a closse vessell, & let it stande a dayes and than let the patient drynke therof, a sponefull or two at euen, and in the mornynge fyrste & last.

¶ For to cōforte the stomake and swellynge at the herte,

☞ Make a sawce of Sage, & Perssly, euen porcyons w a lytel Rewe and ysope, and myngle it wel with wyste, & let the pacyēt eate ỳ same with his meate whether it be flesshy or fysshe, and he shal recure.

¶ Here foloweth good medecynes for the syckenes in the breste & sydes, & fyrste for the grete hete in the breste, ỳ causeth greate drynes cōmyng into ỳ mouth & stoppynge.

DO into a morter a good handfull of smalage, and a quantite of the soureste brede that thou canst fynde and braye them in a morter, and stāpe them tyl they be thycke and lyke a playster, than laye it on a lynene cloth

cloth and bynde it about his brest. iij. oz. iiij. tymes and it shall dzyue awaye the hete of the mouthe and the stoppynge of the hed also.

¶ Foz the clensynge of any pacyent that is encõbzed with Glete and foz the herte, & foz the Lyuer and foz the longes and foz to open the bzeste & the Pypes of the herte ẏ be ful stopped.

☞ Take a newe earthẽ pot & take Betynozel, Smalage, Groundeswelly, Louage, ysop, Hertestonge Heyhoue, Alysaunder, and the roote of Elenacampana, of euery of these lyke moche by weght, and wasshe them clene & stampe thẽ in a mozter and myngle thẽ well togyther, & take some of thẽ and put in a fayze erthen pot and put theym downe ẅ thy hande to the botom and take freſh grece fayre & newe ſtayne, moltē and colde and make a thynne bedde in that pot aboue the herbes with thy hande, & than laye on another porcion of herbes and another bedde of the ſame lay genes, and do thus tyll thy pot be full, and couer it cloſe that no ayer go out, and ſet it in a caudron full of water vp to the necke of ỹ pot, ſo ỹ there go no water into the pot and let them ſethe tyll the herbes be tender, and then take it downe fro the fyer, & ſtrayne it throughe a cloth that is clene, into a clene veſſell, & therof gyue to the pacyēt to drynke in warme wyne, or in warme ale laſte at euen, and fyrſt in the mornynge & he ſhalbe hole.

¶ Another for the ſame.

¶ Take Rewe, and Ambroſe, of eche lyke moch, and ſtampe them, and tēper thē with whyte wyne, &

drynke

¶ Another foz the same.

¶ Take Yslope, Centozy, of euery lyke moche stampe them, and temper them with whyte wyne, and dzynke therof.iij.dayes fastynge.

¶ Another foz the same.

¶ Take Yslope, Centozy, Coliander, Anece, and Lycozyce, & sethe them wel all togyther in water tyl the thyzde parte be wasted, & gyue to the pacient therof to dzynke in the mozynge colde, and at euen hote. One galon of water is suffycyent foz the herbes. Foz yslope is a mylde herbe to hele a mannes weste, yf it be stāped and dzonken with water fastynge. Also it clarysyeth the bzeste meruelously.

¶ Foz stoppynge of the bzeste.

☞ Take R[illegible], and sethe it with Apsel, and gyue to the patyent to dzynke therof.

¶ Foz the [illegible] of the bzeste.

℞ Take wormwod, Mynte, Calamynt, Sage, and Tyneger, and stampe them smal and take whyte brede, & toste it tyl it be al brownè, than take the brede & mye it small and put all togyther and make a playster and laye it at thy hert.

¶ For the brest that is combuste,

☞ Take yslope, & sethe it in wyne fro a potel tyll a quart, and let the pacyent vse to dynke therof, at euen hote & in the mornynge colde fyrste and last, and he shalbe hole.

¶ Another for the same.

℞ Take iiij. potels of rennynge water of a wel that spynges, and boyle them all therin tyll it come to a potell, and than straynie them thrughe a cloth, & let the lycoure on the fyre, and take halfe a pynte of wyne, and a halfe peny worthe of ỳ pouder of Annes, a halfpeny worth of the pouder of Lycorice, and

and a peny wozche of Suger, and caste all these into the lycoure and let them boyle well, and than put it in a vesel, and stope the pot that the ayze go nat out, and let the pacyent dzynke it in the moznynge but nat laste at nyght and he shall recouer ryght soone.

¶ A medecyne foz stoppynge at the bzest.

℞ Take rewe, & sethe it w̄ Aysel, and let the pacyent dzynke therof.

¶ Another foz ẏ euyl in the bzest.

℞ Take wozmwod Wynte, Calamyn, Sage, and Wyneger, and stampe them smal and take whyte bzede & toste it tyl it be al bzowne, than take it and mye it small and and put it al togyther and make a playster and laye it to the herte.

¶ Foz the Canker in a womans pappe, & let no mā dzede it foz this medecyne is beste therfoze.

drynke therof thre dayes fastyng.

℞ Take Wormwod & the whyte of an egge and stomme it & dyste-per it with oyle of Uyolettes, and let her blode on the veynes about the pappes. &c.

¶ For a Canker on the pappe.

☞ Take ỹ fen of a Geyte, and the ioyce of Celodyne, & myngle them togyther and laye it on the sore.

¶ For the Fester.

℞ Take the ioyce of ỹ rote of the fore gloues, & tẽper it with mãnes dryne, & wryng it through a cloth and washe the sore ofte̅ therwith

¶ To make a woman to haue a softe breste.

☞ Let her drinke ale Netel seds and Salt & it shal make her hole.

¶ For swellynge of the brest.

℞ Take wormwod, Sage, and Calamynte, of eche lyke moche, & frãpe them small, and put therto a quantyte quantyte of Vynegar, and tempes them togyther, and take whyte breed and toste it browne, & grynd it small, and boyle them togyther and styrre it that it brenne nat to, and laye it to the breste as hote as thou mayest suffer it.

¶ Foz payne of the brest.

☞ Take Ysope, Perely, & Sage, and stampe them, and laye them to the breste.

¶ Foz straynes of the breste.

☞ Take Herstonge, Vpoletes, Centozy, Endyue, Pellatozy, Pe-rytozy, Fenel, and Ache, of eche lyke moche. And take the totes of Pecyngall, and.viii. sedes of Bu-rytyll, and ysope, & a parte of Su-ger, and sethe them in a galon of of wyne, oz fayre water vnto a po-tel, & clense it into a newe earthen pot and couer it well, let it stande all nyght, and than drynke of it euery daye tyll thou be hole.

And thou haue moch sekenesse in the body, sethe Barly in water and kepe the fro all euell dyettes. tyll thou be hole.

¶ Another for the same.

Take Uyolet, Ache, Centory, and Lycoryce, and sethe them in water, & drynke it in the euenynge hote, and in the morynge colde.

¶ For to purge the breste.

Take rewe, & Ambrose, of both lyke moch, and temper it with red wyne, and drynke it. iij. dayes.

¶ Another for the same.

Take a quãtice of Slowes ỹ be rype and grynde thẽ small, and put them into a newe earthen pot and fyll it full of newe ale newe chensed, & couer wel the pot aboue and make a hole ī the groũde and set thy pot therin and couer it wel aboue with earth, & let it stande. x.

dayes

dayes & than take it vp, & drynke therof a cup full at ones, at euen hote, & in the moznynge colde, and ȳ shalt be hole by the grace of god

¶ Foz the bzeste that is combzed.

❧ Take yslope, & sethe it in wyne tyo a potell to a quarte, & vse it at euen hote & in the moznynge colde

¶ Foz the stomake that is colde.

❧ Take Centozy, Wynte, and Sauerey, and boyle thē in whyte wyne, oz stale ale in a close pot, ȳ there go no ayer out tyl the thyzde parte be wasted, and than dzynke therof.xx.dayes in the moznynge hote, & thou shalt be hole therof.

¶ Foz swellynge of the stomake.

❧ Stampe Fenel rotes, & rotes of Smalage, of eche lyke moche and temper them with wyne, and dzynke therof warme at euen and colde in the moznynge.

Another

¶ Another for the same.

℞ Take wormwod, Agrymony smalage, ana. M.i. barowes greece i. M boyle thē togither with wyne tyll the coloure of the herbes fade than stampe thē and strayne them into a panne w a cōuenyent quantyte of whete brayne, and make a playster therof & laye it to the sore place as hote as maye be suffered, and than take the gall of an ore & Rybworte & stampe the herbe and se that thou haue almoche of the toyce of the herbe, as thou haste of the mater of the gall, than boyle thē togyther tyll holfe be wasted, in maner of a playster lay it to the sore place as hote as thou may suffer it.

¶ For pappes that be broke and do ren easly to helpe them.

℞ Take Sorel deboyes & lappe it in a worte leke, and rost it in the alles, by the space of halfe a quar ter of an houre, than stãpe it small and put thetto Hony, & Veneger, mengle them togyther, & put them in a boxe, but lay to the soze a play ster of Garlyeke, and mele boyled togyther in Vyneger.ii.oz.iij.tymes & than laye ỹ salue in the box.

¶ Foz hete i the brest that causeth greate dzynesse cõmynge into the mouth and stoppynge in the hed.
☞ Take a good hãdful of Sma-lage, and bzaye it in a mozter, and put to it a quantyte of the sowzest bzede that thou canst get, & stãpe them togyther tyll they be thycke lyke a playster, than laye it on a lynnen cloth and bynde it about hys brestе.iij.oz.iiij. tymes oz so many nyghtes, and it shall dzyue awaye the hete of the mouth, and the stoppynge of the hed.
¶ Foz to bzeke fleume in the bzest

Take

℞ Take croppes of red Nettes & croppes of red Netels, & wasshe wod & tēper thē with wyne or with colde stale ale, but wyne is better, and gyue it to the pacyēt to drike in the morynge nexte his herte & laste at euen and he shalbe hole.

¶ For a feuer in the stomake

℞ Conserue of Roses, is good for the feuer in the stomake. Also it is good for all euyls that are ingendred of hote humors.

¶ For to make a dryuke for womans pappes, that are rancled and be ful of ache.

☞ Take Groundeswyly, & two tymes asmoch of Brouswort, and wasshe them bothe & stampe them and tēper them vp with stale ale, and strayne it thrroughe a clothe & gyue to the pacyēt therof fyrste in the morynge and laste at nyght.

¶ For ỳ cāker i a womās pappes

Take

Take a quantyte of Garlyke, and pyll it and rye mele, or Barly mele, and braye both wel togither and boyle them both in good Vyneger tyl it waxe thycke as paste, and than make a playster therof & laye it to the pappe tyll it waxe whyte, & than take Pympernell & grynde it smal and put therto lyke Hony, & than make therof a playster and laye it to the pappe, and couer it well & warme and let the pacyēt drynke of this drynke that folowety. Take Beten, Veruayne Egrymony, Groūdeswylly, Broswort, Mader, of eche lyke moche, saue of the Mader, for of it ỹ must haue as muche as of al ỹ other by weyght & walshe thē & stampe thē and lethe them wel in stale ale tyll the halfe be wasted than let the pacyent vse of this drynke fyrste and last tyl she be hole, but & the pappe be very blacke, mengle nat therwith for it is incurable.

¶ A good lectuary for all maner of gnawynges and other euyls in the brest and for ratlynge in a mānes throte, and for a byle and sore in the sydes, and for the myst, and for the stomake.

Take Horshoue, Groūdswyly, Ysope, Centory, Smalage, Fenel Rewe, Goldes, Pulyalryall, Nepe, of euery of these lyke moch and put therto Peper, and Hony, that it be thycke as a lectuary, & whan thou haste tempered the ioyce of thyne herbes, and thy Hony, and Peper togyther, & sethe them well and stre them, than put it in box and geue to the pacyēt a sponefull in the morynge and another in the euenynge & it shall make hym hole by the grace of god.

¶ Another for the same.

Take

℞ Take Sage, and Rewe, and temper thē with a lytell kayze water, foz the herbes be dzye of them selfe, and stāpe the Sage, and the Rewe, and take Comyn and put into the ioye of the herbes a quātyte of Peper, and hony, and sethe them wel togyther, & make therof a lectuarye, and gyue to the pacīēt therof a sponefull at euen, & another in the moznynge.

¶ Another foz the same.

℞ Take fyue leues of grasse, and stampe it with small ale, and gyue to the pacyēt to dzynke therof. iii. sponefull at ones, & sethe Pulyall of the moūten, and bynde it to the nauell as hote as it maye be suffered & the pacyent shalbe hole with in. iii. dayes at the moste.

¶ Another foz the same.

℞ Stampe Rewe, & Salt togyther and temper it with stale ale, and gyue to the pacient to dzynke therof, and the pacient shalbe hole by the grace of god.

¶ Here foloweth good medecynes for dyseases in the syde.

¶ Take lytell balles sodde of red wortes, and brenne them in a new earthen pot and than grynde them to pouder, after that gather it togyther with hony and smere and well the togyther, and playster it to the soze.

¶ For the ache vnder the syde.

☞ Dzynke sage w wyne a lytell warmed and it wyll cease the ache vnder the sydes and of the wombe and of thy stomak. And it is good for the dzopsye, and for the Palsy and for the ache in the hed.

¶ Another for the same.

Dzynke

Dzynke Cuerfoyle with wine & it wyl ceale the ache in the fydes

¶ Foz a woman that hath greate sozowe in the body vnder the fydes.

Take hylwozt Alifaunder perfly, Louage, red Fenell, Radyfshe, Elenacampana, and feth all thefe herbes togither i whyte wyne fro a potel to quarte, and let the pacient dzynke therof in ỹ mozninge and at euen tyll fhe be hole.

¶ Another foz the fame.

Take iij. croppes of Tanfy, & the Lyly roote, and grynde them, and frye them in freshe grece oz in fresh butter oz Capons grece, and laye it to thy foze fyde, neyther to hote noz to colde.

¶ Another foz the fame.

Take Hylwozte, Alyfaunder, Perfly, Louage, red Fenel, Smalage, burnet, gromel of eche lyke

mothe, & sethe thē in whyte wyne vnto halfe, and thā straine it and drynke therof at euen hote and in the morninge colde, and vse it and it shall helpe the, for thys is proued medecyne.

¶ Here foloweth good medecynes for the Lyuer, the Lōges, the Spleune, and the Mylte, and a restoratyue for them that be wasted and fyrst for the lyuer, the longes and the mylte.

Ommenlye it is vsed to take two partes of Fenell and the thyrde part of Hony and seth them togyther tyl they be thycke as a lectuarye and let the seke vse therof fyrste and laste, and he shalbe hole, but gyue hym a purgacyon.

¶ Another for the same.

Take

℞ Take ỳ inner ryne of ỳ Allhe tree, & stampe it & sethe it in wyne, and it wyl hele the splẽne doutles.

¶ Foz stoppynge of the Splenne.

℞ Take the Elder rote, and seth it in whyte wyne, vnto the thyzde parte & dzynke therof foz it cureth merueylously.

¶ Another foz the same.

℞ Dzynke the lunges of the foz, made in pouder, foz in all maner of men it healeth the splenne, foz thys hathe bene pzoued, ¶ Foz the Splẽne a sou-ueraỳne mederỳne.

℞ Take.ii.pounde of faire bozes grece, & .ii. pounde of asshes made of Asshes wode, & a galon of fayze rennynge water, and sethe thẽ all wel togyther tyll the halfe be wasted and than straỳne thẽ thzough a cloche, & let it stande all a nyght & in the mozning flete of the grece.

and cast awaye the water and medle ỹ grece wel togyther & strayne it and put it into a boxe, and therwith anoynte without vpon the Spléne, and gyue to the pacyent to drynke that ensueth after.

¶ Take the rotes of y ounge Ashen plantes, and a good quantite of wormewoode, and seth them well togyther in a galon of wyne tyll ỹ halfe be wasted and let the patiẽt drynke therof, at euen hote, and in the morynge colde, and let the pacyent vse of this oyntment and of this drynke, & he shalbe hole with in ix. dayes at the forthest, yf there be any recure in hym.

¶ Here folowyth good medecines for the deseases in the wombe, for costyfnes, for ỹ flyxe, for thẽ that be brustẽ for ỹ wormes in the wombe for the fundamẽt and fyrst for the sekenesse in the wombe.

NOwe foz the deleases in the woinbe. Take Perſly rotes, and red Feneli ſtalkes & walſh them clene and ſtampe them in a mozter, of eche of them a good platter full.

¶ Foz the coſtyknes.

❧ Take a mozſell of Larde, almoche as thy fynger and pouder it with Sage, and tyme, and put it into thy fundament. &c.

¶ Foz the coſtyknes of the ſuckynge chylde.

✠ Smere ꝑ mothers pappe ꝯ her thewynge. ¶ Foz a womā ꝑ hath many floure. ❧ If a womā haue many floures, dzinke of the whyte of ſtale ale and it ſhal helpe her. ¶ Foz a womā that is ſwellen in the belye as ſhe were with chylde. ❧ Take Sauerayne and ſtāpe it and put therto good ale & take

Gete and whyte Ambze and make them in pouder very smal, & gyue her to dzynke with the Saueray, and make a playster of saueray, of ysope, and of Lekes fryed in fretsh butter, and laye it to her bely, and to her raynes, and she shalbe hole.

¶ To stoppe a great flyxe.

Take halfe a poũde of Almondes, and blaunche them, & stampe them in a mozter smal, & than take twelue yockes of newe Egges a rosted harde, and put them into a mozter and bzaye al togyther, and than take a pynte of strongē red Vyneger, foz it is beste, and put it into the same stuffe, & myngle thē well togyther, and than put all into a fayze pot of earth, and stampe it wel & take therof. b. oz. bi. spone ful at ones, warme it in a pece and dzynke it. iii. oz. iiii. tymes vpon a daye, yf it be nede.

Another

¶ Another foz the same.

¶ Take the rote of greate docke that beareth the burre and the leues of Oke and grounde yuell and make a bathe of them and put thy fete therin vp to the ancles, but no hyer, and let thy fete stande longe therin as hote as ye maye suffer it and than kepe them warme.

¶ Foz to heale a man oz woman, that is bzoken with out cuttynge.

☞ Take Betayne, Uerueyne, Cãfere, Hertestonge, Dayses, the beres of the elder oz the leues, that are tenderest and Cambokes, take these herbes and stampe thẽ small in a mozter, as ye thynke best, and let the most parte be Beten, & than temper thẽ with smal ale oz wyne, and dzynke of this lycour warme, last at nyght, and fyzst in the mozynge. viii. dayes.

¶ Foz an olde mã that is bzusten

℞ Take of Betayne, twyse as moche as of Camboke, and longe wormes that bene in the earth in gardaynes, or in the hye wayes walshe them clene and braye them in a morter, and temper them with the Betayne, and Cãboke & vse it in meate & drinke tyl thou be hole

¶ For the costyfenesse.

☞ Take the Pollypody on the Oke and walshe it clene & stampe it small in a morter and take fayre fresshe grece therto, & take an olde henne that is fat & scalde her and drawe her & walshe her clene and farse her with the Pollypody and with the larde and sethe her well tyll she be tender, & let the pacyent drynke therof the brothe as hote as he may, & take a greate Onyon and kerue out the core & put fresshe grece into it and set it in ỹ asshes and let it roste tyl it be tender, and

than

than stampe it and let it be layde to his nauell, and bynde it fast all warme & let hym drynke the broth before sayde with whyte wyne or whey & none other drike & he shall haue delyueraūce wtin.iij.houres

¶ For wormes in the bely a good medecyne.

☞ Take Beten, & Sauen, & drye them and make a pouder of them and let the pacyent drynke therof in hote water & as soone as ỹ pouder is downe into ỹ bely it wyll slee thē & bryng thē out on warrātyse.

¶ Another for the same.

☞ Take Sengren, Fetherfoy, & Wyntes, and stāpe them & drynke therof ones warme in wyne, & it wyll slee them, and bryng them out.

¶ For the Flyxe a medecyne.

☞ Take the kernelles of greate raysons and drye them and make pouder of them & medle thē with the beste red wyne, that thou canst gette and drynke therof all waye whā thou drynkest, and thou shalt soone be hole.

¶ For a mānes fundament that goeth oute.

¶ Take the red Netell croppes, and braye them small in a morter, and do them in a earthen pot, and do therto a good porcyō of whyte wyne, and sethe thē well togyther to the halfe dele, and gyue the seke therof to drinke fyrst & last warme and lay the substance of the herbe to the fundamente, as hote as he maye suffer it, and let him vse this medecyne tyll he be hole.

¶ For wormes in the wombe.

¶ Take Betayne, Sauayne, and dry them, and make pouder therof and let the seke drynke therof in fayre hote water or in mylke, and as sone as it is in the stomake it wyll

wyll flee the wozmes, and bzynge them out on warrantys, foz thys hathe bene pzoued.

¶ Medecynes foz the Emerodes

☞ Take a stole with a sege, & let it be closed to the grounde, & than take a panne with charcole & set it vnder the stole, and as hote as ye may suffet it set you theron, & take frankensence, and knocke it into pouder, and cast in a good quãtite therof into the fyze, and syt you on the sege as close as ye can, & whan the smoke is gone, caste in moze pouder in the fyze, and syte theron whyle ye maye.

¶ Another foz the same.

☞ Take an Onyon and cutte the toppe of the bzede of a peny, oz. ii. pence oz moze as the Onyon is of gretnes, and put out all the herte therof & than take pouder of Peper and put therin a good quãtite

and

and set on the toppe agayne and take a greate lynnen cloth & wete it in water and wrynge it wel with youre hande and than lappe the Onyon therin & laye it in the fyre tyl it be rosted softe, and than take it out and put the cloth away and laye it in another clothe to youre tuel as hote as ye maye, and whan it is colde laye to another and so haue them redy all waye. v. or. vi. or as many as ye wyll.

¶ Another for the same.

Take Egges & roste thē harde and lay them to your tuell & when it is colde, take an other as ye do by the Onyons, and yf ye wyll put verdegrece in youre Onyons some men call it better thā Peper & ye wyl cleue youre egges & take out ỹ yockes & put vergrece therin as hote as ye may suffer it, laye it with the vergrece to the sore.

¶ Another foz the same.

Also take grece of netes fete & a lytel hertes suet, and anoynt the soze wel therwith, and then take a tylestone & hete it in the fyze and as hote as ye maye syt theron, & yf ye haue no tylestō, take a stole & hete it hote, and yf it blede take a lytell hole armonyacke and put to grece and suet and vse them togyther

¶ Another foz the same.

Also take Gumme that comes of an Jue tree, and anoynte the soze wel therwith, and take a tylestone oz a stole as J sayde befoze and yf ye blede take a good quantyte of Mousere and a parte of Betayne, and staupe them togyther and dzynke the ioye therof with a lytell olde ale. iii. mozynges oz. iiij. fyzst and laste.

¶ Another foz the Emerodes pzoued.

fyzste

¶ Fyrst take a good quantyte of cordeners patches and brenne thē on a tyleston as lytell as ye can, so that pouder maye be made therof and a lytel quantyte of Alom, and brenne it in lyke wyse & make pouder therof, and blende them togyther, and put therto the lycoure of a swynes gall, & of a brente swyne is beste and yf the gal be dryed vp for longe keppynge, than laye it in fayre water all nyght, and it wyll relese agayne into ruddy lycoure, and if ye can gette no swynes gall thā take oyle that coriours dyght theyr lether with, and blende it to your pouder so that it be somwhat stampynge lyke a playster, and yf ye thynke it byte to sore take more lycoure, and lesse alom and yf ye thinke it byte nat sore ynough, thā take more alom therto, and whan thys medecine is thus made anoint

the

the soze therwith and there be any pappes commynge out of the tuell whan the soze is anoynted take a pece of the skyn, of the gall & laye the inner syde of the skyne vpon ỹ pappes, & it shall ease thē greatly, and if the soze be within the tuell take and anoynte it within with youre fynger as far as ye may.

¶ For an Inpostume in the body

℞ Take Centozye, Rosemary, Wozmewode, Hozehowne. and make it in a syzope w̄ whyte wyne and let the seke take therof and it shall cause the postume go downe & whan it is bzoken let hym vse to dzynke of the same syzope warme.

¶ For to dystroye an Inpostum oz a stycche in what place it be of a man oz woman.

℞ Take the rote of holyeoche & walsshe it clene, and sethe it tyl it be tender, and than put out the water into a vessel and thā take Lynsede and Fencreke of euery lyke muche and that thou haue as much of thē two as af the rote that is sodden, and than sethe them in the same water tyll it rope as it were byzde lyme, and than stāpe the rote, and than do therto Barly mele, and mengle them well togyther, & than frye then with bozes greece, & laye it to the soze, playster wyse at hote as ye maye sufferit. Iiii. dayes and he shalbe hole on warrantyes.

A playster foz an Impostume.

¶ Take the rote of Cheueryll, & the rote of whyte Walowe, & Yolkes of Egges, and olde smere the whiche Walowe shalbe sodden & than stāpe them all togyther and laye it to the Impostome.

¶ Another playster foz an Impostum of ỹ pappe oz any other lym.

Take

❧ Take Lynsede and sethe it in water, tyll it be bozsten, and take shepes talowe and well them with swete mylke and lay it therto.

❧ Another foz the same.

* Take mozel & the whyt of a egge and Bene mele, & mẽgle thẽ togyther & laye it on ỹ pappe all colde.

*Foz a Impostũ in a mãnes body

¶ Let him dzynke Turmentyne.

❧ Here olowyth dyuers good medecynes foz the Mozphewe.

¶ A man shall fyzst take water of Bozage, & water of Fyntozy mengled togyther by euen pozcyons, & let the seke dzike it at mozowe and cuẽ he shalbe hole Win.xiiii.daies.

☞ Another foz the same.

¶ Take Musterde sede, & Salte, and stampe them togyther, & temper them with Vynyger, & noynte the Mozphewe tyctwyth.

❧ Another foz the same.

☞ Take the rote of the red docke and pycke awaye the vttermoste blacke and than stape it w̄ Salte, and temper them with Vinegar & anoynt the Worphewe, therwith.

☞ Another for the same.

¶ Take blacke Sope, and Vynegar, and whyte Brymstone, of eche of these lyke moche, and mengle them togyther and anoynte the Worphewe, therwith.

☞ Another for the same.

¶ Take the grene Copporas, and put it in clene water, and let it stande a daye, and than clense the water, & than anoynte the Worphewe with the water.

☞ Another for the same

¶ Take Fyntory & make water, therof & anoynte ỹ body therwith.

☞ Another for the same.

¶ Take Brymstone, and grynde it and put it in a lytel lynnen cloth

two two folde, and bynde it fast therin and wete it in Veuegar & anoynte the Mozphewe therwith.

☞ Another foz the same.

¶ Take blacke Sope in a clene clothe & put in yelowe pylle & than anoynte the Mozphewe therwith.

☞ Another foz the same.

¶ Let thē dzynke erly at mozowe and late at euen water of Bozage and of Fymtozy medled togyther by euen pozcyon and within.xiiii. dayes they shalbe hole.

☞ Foz the Mozphewe be it whyte oz blacke.

¶ Take an vnce of fyne Vergrese, and an vnce of Sulpher, and make them bothe into small pouder and take.ii. shepes heddes that are fatte & fle them and cleue them and take out the bzayne, and caste it away, & than washe them cleue and sethe them tyll they be tender.

and thā take thē downe of the fyre & let it stande styll tyll on the nexte morowe, & than gyther of clene al the grece & mengle it w̄ the pouder & than put it in a boxe & let it come nyghe no fyre after ȳ haste done thē togyther but worke them alwaye colde & that wyll hele the Morphewe be it whyte or blacke & anoynte the seke therwith agaynst the fyre euery nyght whan he shall go to bed & in the morynyng washe it awaye with Vyneger, & vse thys medecyne tyll he be hole.

Medecynes for payne in the backe.

Take the rote of Auence and Lycorice & boyle thē wel all togyther in whyte wyne fro a pottell vnto a pynte. And take you an vnce of pouder of Canell, and halfe an vnce of pouder

of

of Galyngale, and mengle al these well togyther, and gyue the seke to dryuke euery daye at mozne, and at euen. ii. sponefull, & thã anoynte hym wel agayne the fyze with oyle Benedicam and take Annes sede, and stepe it well in fyne Vyneger, all a daye and a nyght, and than take vp the Annes and dzye it in the wynde and cast awaye the Vineger, and let the seke eate the sede foz it is a pzyncepall medecyne.

☞ Another foz the same.

¶ Take Smalage, Egrymoũde and Mouse ere and stampe them all togyther and wasche thẽ well fyzst and temper them with Vyneger, and than frye them well in bozes grece and make a playster and as hote as the seke may suffer laye it there as ẏ ache is & it shall hele hi.

☞ Another foz the same.

¶ Take lylly rotes, Camamel, &

Junes sede, and stampe them all togyther, & frye it in bozes greece, & put a lytel whyte wyne thertto, and in maner of a playster laye it on a clothe & bynde it faste to the backe oz roynes warme, and after. iii. oz. iiii. dayes remoue it and if nede be remoue it agayne.

☞ Medecynes foz a marmok.

¶ Take Bzome, & bete it to pouder and tẽper the pouder with oyle made of Myntes, and a lytell Uynegar therwith, and anoynte the soze oz els take greate walnuttes as they growe the huskes and all, and bzaye them togyther in a mozter, and tẽper it with oyle Olyue, and frye it in a panne, and put to the fryenge a quantite of pytche, & temper it with that thozowe a lynnen clothe, and therwith anoynte the soze and laye Plantayne leues aboue the backe towarde the soze

and

and euery mozynge walshe the soze with mader water.

❧ Another koz the same.

¶ Take Grene walnuttes Hulkes and to bzaye them small in a mozter, & put therto a lytell blacke pytche and bzaye thē all togyther, and after do therto a lytell quycke Syluer and bzaye them wel togy-ther, and temper them with Oyle of Olyue and than frye them well togyther, & make therof an oyntemente & anoynte the soze therwith, and lay theron a waybzed leke the blacke syde towarde the soze, and euery mozynge walshe the soze with Mader water.

❧ Koz to hele a matmoll oz a Canker.

¶ Take a pynte of pured Hony, that is to saye, take waxe in ỹ com-bes & bzeke it in a seke, ouer a ba-son oz pot, & that Hony that reneth

thzoughe the seke is pured Hony, and a quarte of tennynge spryngynge water and a great quantite of sage and sethe all to gyther as well as thou canst and walsche the wounde with the lye oure and laye the sage seke on the wounde.

¶ Medecines for the Wenalone.

¶ If ye haue the Wenalon, take Cresses & eate them .iii. dayes, and dzynke therto lowe wyne oz water & yf ye cast it out ye shall hele wel.

¶ Another for the same.

¶ Take byrgyne waxe and sethe it in the whyte of an Egge, and eate it al hote and it strayneth the fundamente.

¶ Another for the same.

¶ Take a newe potte, & do it full of whete floure and do it in a hote ouen, and let it bake as longe as bzeade dothe, take of the floure a meture of a coppe & take .iii. henne

egges

egges yockes & the toyce of Wyntes of bothe lyke muche & bake it & eate therof, but nat ouer muche.

❧ A medecyne foz the Jaundes.

¶ Take the yocke of an egge and do awaye all the whyte and do the pouder of Safun whan it is bulted, and mengle a lytell with the yolke in the ſhell and roſte it harde and gyue it the ſycke to eate longe before his mete and do ſo often tymes and yf the ſyckenes haue bene longe vpon hym.

❧ Anothes foz the ſame.

¶ Take Arkeaungel, and Elena cãpana of eche herbe by hym ſelfe one vnce, take a halfepeny wozthe of Saffrone and boyle it in a pote with a quarte of whyte wyne of rochell and boyle it tyll it come to a pynte and than clenſe it thzough a cloth, in to a cleng pot of earth, & kepe

kepe it a daye and a nyght & take iiii. spoonfull at ones, fyrst at morne and laste at euen. ix. dayes vse it.

❧ Another for the same.

¶ Take whyte Spanysshe sope, and a lytel stale ale in a cuppe, and rubbe the sope agaynste the cuppes botom tyll ỹ the ale be whyte than shaue in a halpeny waygbt of Euere, and let the seke dryuke it at morne & last at euẽ tyl he be hole it hath bene proued & founde true.

❧ Medecynes for a tetter.

¶ Take straubery leues & groũde Iuy, and stampe them togyther, than take shepes talowe and frye them togyther well, than take a clothe and strayne it and anoynte the sore therwith.

☞ Another for the same.

¶ Take strawe of Otes, & brẽne it than take the asshes therof and put it on the place that watereth.

and

and it shall hele it.

¶ Here folowth dyuers good medecynes foz the Feuer and foz the bote Euyll, and fyrste foz the Feuer quartayne.

TAke a handeful of par sly, and a poũde of Co= myne and fyue quar= tes of wyne, and sethe all togyther, tyll the halfe dele and than gyue hym to dzynke that is sycke at mozne cold and at euen hote & it wyl hele him.

¶ A medecyne foz the hote euyll

¶ Dzynke Warygoldes & Saf= fron and stale ale within the thyzd houre that is comone vpõ a body, but dzynke no moze thetof after the thyzde houre it passed howe soeuer ye do.

¶ Foz to make a dzynke foz all Feuers Postumes oz any other syckenes in mannes bodye.

Take

¶ Take euery daye of the pouder before sayde for the Dropsy in the wōbe, and take Isope, Rosemary, Violet, Veruayne, Beten, herbe Johñ, Mouslere, marygoldes, plāten, Auence, Sage, Fetherfewe, & of eche a handefull & walche them well and stampe them a lytell and do them in an erthen pot, and do therto a galon of whyte wyne and let it stande all nyght well couered and on the morowe seth it in a po-tell, & let it renne thorowe a clothe and do it in a clene vessell & couer it well and vse therof, ix. dayes at euery tyme halfe a pynte, at euen hote and in the mornynge colde, whosoeuer vse this medecyne shal be hole of all maner of these aforesayde sycknes by ỹ grace of god so sayeth Ipocras the phylosopher.

¶ For the Feuer quartayne.

Take, iii. sedes of Wyze before

the

the axes come and it ſhall remoue certayne houres, oz take a Garlyke hede and the rotes of Radyſh thze peper cozns, and ſtampe the with wyne, and dzynke them and let the blode in the vayne of the Wylte oz make ỹ hote by the fyze and let ỹ blode vnder thy ſholder and thou ſhalte be hole.

❧ Foz the Feuer cotidyan.

¶ Stampe the ſede of Ache, and whan thou teleſt the axes come dzynke it with foure ſponefull of colde water: oz dzynke of the toyce of Fetherfewe and ſmalage, with water a good quantite oz the Axes come and they ſhall forſake the within thze dzynkes.

❧ Foz the feuer tertion.

¶ Take the toyce of planten and teper it with wyne oz .iiii. ſponefull of water and dzynke it a lytell

beſoze

before the Ares come and laye the to slepe and couere the warme. Or take the lesse Sperwort & betayne and tēper the toyce therwith with wyne or water, and drynke a cup ful before the Ares come and thys wyll swage the coldnes.

¶ Another for the same.

¶ Take Betayne, Ambrole, horshoue Sollequium, Tālay Mugwort, Wormwod, Rewe, Sauyne, of eche a handefull and sethe them in water or in wyne, vnto ỳ thyrde parte burlet the secōde be of wyne and the thyrde water, and drynke a cupful or the Ares come & anone it shall passe awaye. Or take the mylke of a gote & sethe therin the sede of Blanscoke vnto the thyrde parte be wasted, and drynke it .iiii. dayes at euen and morne for it dystroyeth all Feuers

¶ Another for the same.

Take

☞ Take a good handefull of Wozmwod and grynde it as small as grenefaule & put therto bzoune bzede, and pouder of Compne and temper it with Aell made thycke as grenefauce, & whan thou feleſt the axes come, go to thy naked bede, and make the ryght warme, and lay it to thy ſtomake and laye lether nexte vnto the playſter to holde in the ſoyce, & bynde it faſte to the with a towell tyl it be colde, and than laye to a newe as hote as thou mayſt lufker & whyle the axes dureth do ſo & it ſhall hele the.

☞ Another foz the ſame.

¶ Take Urtica greca, Plantē, Dādelyon, Wyntes, Wozmwod, Smalage, of eche a handeful and boyle thē in a galon of water vnto a pottell and than ſet it downe to clere and dzynke the fyrſte daye. ij. ſponefull, the ſeconde daye. viij. & so euery day a sponeful lesse tyll ye come to one daye one sponeful but dryncke nat tyll the axes come or begynne to come, and within .ix. dayes it shall go awaye for thys hathe bene often tymes proued.

❧ For a Feuer tercian.

¶ A Feuer tercian is ingendred of greate aboūdance of red colour roted in the bodye as it is proued of wyse men and yf ye wyl be cured therof lyghtly take quyntacenes, and yf ye haue nat it, take good Aqua vite and put therto a lytell rubarbe or newe ale or some other thynges good to purge red colour and put therin the toyce of Dandelyon and vse to dryncke these waters bothe at morynge and euenynge and without doute ye shall be hole lyghtly.

❧ For a Feuer cotidian.

¶ A Feuer cotidian all maysters accordeth

accozdeth that he is engēdzed of a great rote inflewme & of his aboū-dance he is colde and moyste koz it, take Quintaciencia & yf ye lacke it take Aqua vite and put it in a lytell Enkozby, oz pouder of elder flowers oz of some other that pur-geth flewme and vse to take this at mozne & at euen & ye shalbe hole.

☞ Another koz the lame.

¶ Take one galon of whaye and sethe it to a potel thā take a hande-full of Bozage a handeful of long debeke halfe a handeful of Dande lyon a handeful of Wozell, & sethe all togyther to ỹ quātite of a potel than strayne it & set it on the kyre agayne & let it sethe & in ỹ sethyng clarykyt with the whyt of an egge and whan it is sodden & clarykyed scome it clene & put it in a earthen pot stopped and vse to dzynke it luke warme, and it wyl helpe you.

❧ Another for the same.

¶ Take a potell of Wylke, and a sawcerfull of Uertuce, & fayre water and whan the Wylke is some what warme put it in ỳ Uertuce, and water and it wyll wake to a curde whiche put a waye and kepe the whaye than take a handfull of Borage Londete and Sorell.

❧ Another for the same.

¶ Who so drynketh the toyce of Betayne an vnce, and the toyce of Plantayne well menled togyther he shalbe safe for the feuer tertian and he be neuer so sycke. Also it is good for wormes in the wombe.

¶ Nowe it is to tell of diuers medicynes for the Canker & Felter.

TAke mastyke, rockles, galyngale, spyguarde, gelyfer, canell, & a pece of wollen cloth & brenne of ethe one vnce and make powder and do therof therof in ỹ mouth and waſſhe the mouth whan ỹ wyte ſpeake with whyte wyne oz way bzede toyce ꝛ ſcommed Hony.

☞ Another foz the ſame.

¶ Take. viii. oz. ix. leues of ſage, and ſtampe them with a lytell ſalt, and Aſell and make a playſter and laye therto.

☞ Foz a Canker in a womans pappe.

¶ Take Wozwod, ꝛ the whyte of an Egge and ſcomme it ꝛ diſtẽper it with oyle of Violet, and let her blode on ỹ vaynes about the pape

☞ A playſter foz the Canker.

¶ Take Lyme in his vertue that is nat quẽched and blacke Peper and Opyemente and ſtronge Aſell and Rewe, Hony, and Berly mele euenly and boyle them in a newe pot tyl a man maye make pouder of them that pouder is good foz to flee bothe the Canker and Fester.

☞ Another for the same.

¶ Take lene Bacon and brenne it and do it into the sore for it is good for the goute Fester.

☞ For a Canker on the pappe.

¶ Take kenne of a Geyte and the toyce of Celodine and blende them togyther and do it to the sore.

☞ For the Canker.

¶ Take one pounde of wyrgyn waxe & a pounde of bazowes grece molten to gyther & halfe a pounde of pured Frankencence an vnce of Mastyke halfe a pounde of Spanysshe Cod a poũde of stone pytch tui.peny wayght of verdegrece, take all these thynges & breke thẽ small and put thẽ in a fayre paune and let thẽ on the fyre & melte thẽ togyther thã pouder thy Vergrece and put it in & alway sterre it faste for cleuyng to the botom, thã take it dowue, & let it kele tyll ỹ mayste strayne it, but afoze let were ỹ pannes botom foz cleupnge to & whan it waxeth colde scomme a way the fome aboue. * Another foz ỹ same.

¶ Take newe fresh Chese & take small pouder of rysalget & mengle it w̃ lyke hony & spzede it vpon the Chese & take womans mylke y is newe mylked & w̃ a fether anoynte it aboue, & laye it to ỹ soze whan ỹ goest to bed & yf there be any cãker therin he wyll come out & eate ther of & anone he shalbe deed foz thys hathe bene pzoued & founde true.

¶ To slee the Canker within a mannes bodye.

Take the rote of Dzsgõs and bzeke it in small peces & dzye it and make it in pouder & take.ix.peny wayght of the pouder and put it in wyne and sethe it wel, and than let the sycke dzynke therof watue fastyng .iii. dayes & he shalbe hole & neuer haue it after on warrãties

☞ For vaynes broken with in a mannes body.

¶ Take Aueron, and Rewe, and stampe togyther and mengle the joyce with stale ale and gyue it the pacyente to drynke.

☞ Another for the same.

¶ Take floure of roses & Barlye and make a playster and bynde to the forheed & to the two hãdes and bynde thy knees aboue & beneth & the cynowes aboue & benethe & let hym blode at the one arme.

☞ Another for the same.

¶ Take Bursa pastores and fret it well in thy handes and holde it to theyr nose.

☞ For bolynge of a vayne.

¶ Take whete floure the joyce of Ache and talowe and make a playster therof.

Another

❧ Another foz the same.

¶ Also take where floure & Hony and make a playster therof.

❧ Another foz the lame.

¶ Also sethe in water grounde Benes and shepes talowe & make a plyster therof.

❧ Foz a vayne ỹ is bzoken ī two.

¶ Take blode and blende it with Oyle & smere the arme oz the stede that is bzoken & bynde the vayne that is bzoken.

¶ Foz vaynes & synowes bzoken

❧ Take Oreluen and Lynsede, & the flowze of the whyte Walowe and the rotes of the Lyly, and fry= all togyther in grece, oz in swete mylke and make a playster therof & it shal swage ỹ angúysh Saynte Cutbartes playster is good foz the soze & starkenes of the synowes.

¶ Another medecine foz the same

❧ Take ỹ mylke of a Kowe that is of one coloure and the ioyce of Smalage & clene whete flower & sethe thē wel & lay to the Legge or arme for starkenes of the synowe.

¶ To staunche blode whan a mayster bayne is cutte.

¶ Take a pece of salte Befe ỹ fat and the lene togyther as moche as ỹ thynkest wel go into the wounde and lay it on the hote coles & let it rost there tyll it be thorowe hote & al hote put it in the woũde & binde it fast, & it shall staũche anone.

* For to make a playster of herbes for ioyntes ỹ are senowe spryne.

¶ Take groũde Iue, Bobkiem and Spycom, and Neppe, & Brolwoxte, and Sengren, and the croppes of Pellmozel, & croppes of the herbe benet of eche of all these lyke moche and washe them clene and stampe them and boyle them in a panne ouer the fyre well, and as hote

hote as the sycke may suffer it, and so lay it to the soze and it shal lease the akynge, and do awaye the soze and swellynge.

¶ Here folowth diuers good medecines foz the ache oz swellige in the legges, fete oz armes and fyzst foz the legges oz ȳ fete.

TAke Otmele & mylke of a kowe, & put therto the toyce of Sēgren & shepes talowe & let thē all boyle togyther tyll it be thycke & make a playster ther of & laye it aboute the soze and that shall lease the akynge & put awaye the swellynge the same.

¶ Foz all maner of ache.

¶ Take Sage, Rewe, Wozmwode Lozell leues Hozshounde red Nettelles

Nettelles, & stampe them all togy-ther & mengle thē with Waye butter & let it stande .xv. dayes, & olde frye thē & strayne thē clene & than melte therwith Encens & this letueth for all maner of aches.

¶ For ache in ỹ legges or armes.

☞ Take Rewe, Bzoswozt, & rotes of smalage, of eche lyke much and stampe thē as smal as ỹ mayst thā put therto. iii. Yolkes of egges, & a good quantyte of hony, & a peny wozthe of kydlope & a lytell salt, & stampe thē togyther with harbes & all, & mengle thē with whet flower tyll it be thycke to one playster, thā laye it on a wollen cloth as large as the soze is & warme it agaynste the fyer tyll the colde be out than bynde it to the soze & let it lye ther-to a daye and a halfe & remone it not in no wyse if ye wyl be hole for he shal suffer paine tyl. iii. ỹ last sters haue

haue ouercome the ache & whan it is taken of shaue ȳ playster clene & laye on freshe on the same clothe and let it be therto a nyght & a day do thus.iii.tymes & it shalbe hole if it be curable, and anoynt it after with toyce of Plãten tyl the skyne be hole, oz els with cattes grece oz dogges grece.

❧ A salue that is bothe a clenser and a heler of woundes and wyll seace the akynge therof.

¶ Take the toyce of smalage, of petymozell & of plãten of eche lyke muche and take lyke Hony and the whyte of an Egge, & of euery one the same pozcyon ryght as thou doest of the toyce, take as muche toyce as wyll in the shel of an egge of one herbe is Inowe, and than mengle it all togyther & do therto bulted flower of whete & alwayes styrre it faste tyll ȳ the flowre and all

all the other thynges be wel mengled togyther, & make it also thycke as it were pappe and loke it come nere no fyre by no way but al colde take & lay it to the sore, & vse thys salue tyl ỹ woũde be fayre brought into his owne kynde agayne for it dothe bothe clense and hele.

☞ For an open wounde that wyl nat lease akynge.

¶ Take Egremounde, & stampe it smal and tẽper it with fyne hony that it be well moysted & then laye it into the woũde & it shall sease of akynge wtin halfe a houre, and tyght so wyl Bugle & Hony do the same, for bothe hath bene proued.

☞ Another for the same.

¶ Take Brome & Neppe & stãpe thẽ togyther & tẽper it w̃ wyne, & gyue the sore mã to drynke hote & it dothe away the akynge therof.

For

¶ Foz akyng oz swellyng in ẏ eyes

¶ Take the tote of walwoꝛt and sethe it in water but do awaye the ouermoste rynde therof & take the medle therof and stampe it & fry it with bozes greece & make therof a playster and all hote lappe it all hote aboute the swellynge.

¶ Foz akynge oz swellynge in the knees.

¶ Take Rewe, & Leneache, and stampe them wel to gyther & mengle therwith a pozcyon of Honye, and frye them togyther in a pãne, and laye that playster to the soze all warme & it shall sease of akyng and swellynge.

¶ Foz all maner of akynges of strokes of woundes oz of any other maner of soze.

¶ Take the tote of Holyhocke & sethe it well tyll it be tender, and than grynde it in a moztar & than do therto a good quãtite of whete flower & mengle thẽ well togyther and than frye thẽ vp with oyle of Olyue and as hote as ye may suffer laye thys playster to the soze and it shall sease the akynge.

¶ Foz akynge in the bzest.

☞ Take Mogwarte, and temper it with olde swynes grece & temper it with aieli & make therof a playster and put to the soze.

¶ Another medecine toz the same

☞ Take Docke rotes, and skãpe them and frye thẽ in olde swynes grece and make therof a playster and laye to the wzestes and it shal do awaye the akynge.

¶ Here folowerh dyuers good medecynes foz the Pestylence.

TAke a good hãdeful of rodes other wyse called Marygoldes a hãdfull of scalyon, as muche of madynhere & dytaũder halfe a handefull

hādful of Pympernel of ſinkfoyle and of fetherfoy ix.croppes of Tā ſay & take therto halfe a quartron of Bolhermonyake & an vnce of Bzimſtone & bzeke thē to ſinal pou der, thā bzuſe alytel thyn herbes & put thē in a ſtyllatozy & mēgle the ſayd pouder among the herbes all togyther in the ſtyllatozy & oz they begynne to ſtyll take halfe a quar teron of Treacle & ſpzing among thē & ſo perfourme this ſtyllynge &c. Thā take ỹ water aboue ſayde to a body hauynge bocthe & pur ples and it ſhall hele hym.

¶ Another foz the ſome.

℞ Take herbes Benedicta, gracia, dei, and Scabyous, & ſtyl theſe. iii and take the water of thē & giue it to a body hauynge the foꝛſayd ſyc kenes, & it ſhal congyle ỹ blode to reſtoze againe to his owne nature

¶ Another foz the ſame.

℞ Take Parsely Betayne & the rotes of turmentyne & grynde the to pouder and drynke them in ale, and the kynde of them were to be dryed in the tyme for tha they wold grynde best, & thy wyl saue his tyfe if ỹ spottes were brokē out on him

¶ Another for the same.

⚜ Take. iii. spones full Veneger & vi. of foyze water & as moch treacle as a Dāsen or a plum & put all these togyther, & mengle the togyther and than put it ouer the fyer tyll it be warme & let the pacyente that is deseased drynke it and than walke the space of a myle.

¶ Another for the same.

℞ Take tansay, & fetherfoy, columbine & lage of ech a hādful & stāpe the & drynke the ioyce w treacle.

Here foloweth diuers good medecines for botches biles, & old sores & fyst for botches & for older sores

Take

TAke a poũde of virgyn wax and a poũde of Frankensēce, ⁊ a vnce of Mastyke halfe a poũd of spanysh Cod, ⁊ a poũd of stone pytche ⁊.iiii.peny wayght of Uerdegrece, take al these forsayd thinges ⁊ breke thē smal ⁊ put thē in a fayre pãne ⁊ set thē ouer the fyer, and melt them togyther, ⁊ whan they be molten pouder the Uerdegrece and do it in, and euer stere it wel forc cleuynge to the botom and than take it downe and let it kele tyll thou mayst strayne it, ⁊ whan thou strayneste it wete the panne that it maye lose the better fro the panne, and whan it wareth colde with a fether scome awaye the fome of it aboue.

¶ To bryng a botche out of one place into another.

☞ Take Oculus or Uerdayne, ⁊ stãpe it ⁊ lay it.ii.fynger brede fro

the botche & it wyl folowe after, & whan it is remoued than laye on newe fyngers brede thence and do so til it be remoued to the place that thou wylt haue it.

¶ A playster for byles.

℞ Take Cynçō, Fengreke, & Wa licolū, & Lynlede, Wyntes, of eche lyke moche & sethe thē wel in clene water & make a playster therof, & laye it to the byle and it wyl make it roten. ¶ For a botche.

℞ Take ỳ Rose & leues of strauberys & let it be betē in a morter & let ỳ sycke man drynke ỳ ioyce & it shal dryue out ỳ botch on warātise

¶ For to make a byle breke. and rote also.

℞ Take galbanum & clēse it at ỳ fyer & make a plaister therof & lay it to ỳ byle .ii. dayes w̄ out any remouynge, & do so tyl it breke, for it wyl both breke it and hele it fayre

For

¶ Foz a byle ꝑ is ratō & nat bzoke

☞ Take rosted chese & bozes grece ꝑ is an molten & slāpe thē togyther wel & than fry thē a lytel and make a playster & laye it to ꝑ byle as hote as he may suffer it & at the ferdest in shal bzeke win.tiij.dayꝫ with.tiij. playsters on warātyes.

¶ A playster foz to rot a byle.

☞ Take syncon, & fēger, & mily bone, & lynsede, & myntes, of eche lyke moch & sethe thē wel in water & make a plaister therof, & lay it to ꝑ soze byle & it wyll make it to rot.

¶ Foz to bzeke a byle oz felon without launsynge.

☞ Take Angulpertis & the red Wocke rotes & Lylye rote of eche lyke moche & roste thē and grynde thē in a mozter & do therto Bozes grece & frye them all togyther and make a playster therof & laye it to the byle all warme & it shall bzeke it within .v. dayes & .vi. playsters.

¶ For a botche.

⚜ Take Croufote whyles ỹ byle is werynge & stampe it & wrynge out ỹ ioyce therof, & if thou wylte haue ỹ byle remoued lay it in another place by & it shall remoue the sore to ỹ same place & if ỹ laye the drake & the ioyce both in a nutshel laye it there ỹ wylte haue it breke, but let it nat come nyer ỹ swelling then it was afore, & so ỹ mayst remoue a byle whether ỹ wilt & whā tyme cometh to hele it vp, take wayhed & the whyte of an egge & Hony & clene whete floure & megle it wel togyther & than make therof a playster & that wyl hele it vp.

¶ For to bryngē out a botche.

⚜ Take the rote and the leues of Straubery and grynde the tinall and let the sycke man drynke therof that hath a botche and it shall dryue out the botche on warātyse.

¶ Here foloweth dyuers good medecyne foz scabbet legges oz any other place of mannes bodye and fyzst of a mannes body.

Ethe Hozhonde Celoudyne, Wozmwode, Sozell Hayes Elenacampana in fayze rynnynge water of eche lyke moche & sethe them tyll halfe be wasted & wassh therw̃ the sicke wel warm euery day tyl he be hole

¶ To do awaye scabbes.

¶ Take the red docke rotes and Pympernell and scabyous Sozel of boyse and Celõdyne and stãpe them and temper them with May butter than frye them well togyther and straynе them into a clene vessell and cast therto a good quãtyte of Bzymstone pouder & than sterre it well tyll it be colde & ther-w anoynt the seke tyll he be hole.

✠ For scabed legges ¶ ake & brēne

Take marygoldes, petymoyel or plātaine, of eche lyke moch and stampe the smal & strayne out the ioyce therof clene and playster the sore w the ioyce & lynen clothes & vse it all wayes tyll he be hole.

¶ For all maner of Scabbes or ytchynges.

Take Onyons & mynce the & cha sethe the in water or in Vynegyer & than washe ther w the greuance & it shal do awaye ¶ scabbe on the hed, & of al other members.

¶ For a drye Scabbe.

Take the ioyce of moyell, with Oyle of Roses or of Violettes & anoynte the Scabbes therwith.

¶ For pusshes byles & ytchynge.

Take ¶ rote of ¶ sharpe leued docke or of ¶ roūde docke stāpe it in a morter & temper it w sharpe

Vynegyer

Uyneger, & make anoyntmēt ther of & anoynte the greuaūce therwd.

¶ Foz legges that be bzoken out.

Take whyte malowes & bzēne them and take the aſſhes ꝧ come therof & bozes grece togyther, and ſtampe thē and than anoynte ther with well thy legges, & alſo take of the ſame aſſhes and make ther- of lye and walſhe thy legges ther- in oz that thou anoynte the.

¶ Another foz the ſame.

Take the red Docke rote & the rote of Seladen and the rote of Wozmwod & the leues of ꝧ Lozere and Way butter & ſtampe thē and ſethe thē with the butter & wzynge it thzough a clothe & do it in a boꝛ and ſmere the ſcabbes therwith.

¶ Another foz the ſame.

Take the rotꝭ of Elenacāpana and walſhe thē clene in fayze wa- ter, & ſeth thē as ye ſethe perſeneps

pes and than make thē clene and cut them in pecys & knocke them small with coltes grece and smere the soze therwith.

¶ Another soz the same.

℞ Take Bzymstone and quycke Syluer whyte Leyde the ioye of Celodyne Aruement fresshe grece & the ioyce of herbe Benet & smere the soze therwith.

¶ Here foloweth dyuers good medecynes soz Scalles & to haue awaye vermē & fyzst soz Scalles.

TAke pitche and clene ware, of eche lyke moche, & boyle thē well togyther ouer the fyer, & whā it is wel medled togyther thā put therin a good quantyte of the ioyce of rewe, & mengle them well togyther & take a lynnen cloche & make theron a plaister & lay it fast vpō the hed there as the soze welles but see the hed be shauen afoze

and

and let it lye so. iij. dayes and. iij. nyghtes, and the thyrde daye whā it is moste colde drawe it sodenlye awaye or he be ware, & after take Hony & the ioyce of Honysukles ỹ growith on the Woodbynde, and tēper thē well togyther & anoynte thy hed well therwith & that shall make the here ware and if thou maye haue no Honye sukle, take than asshes of Otestrawe in the stede therof but the houy sukle is moche better yf a man haue them.

¶ Another for the same.

☞ Washe thy hed and shaue it clene and take pytche and fyrgrin ware and fry them togyther & lay it to the hed hote and let it lye. iij. dayes without remouynge.

¶ Another for the same.

☞ Take Rye mele and water and make it standynge as a playster & laye it on the hed, and let it lye. iij.

dayes

dayes & after ỹ wasshe the hed, tyl thou mayst se nought but the red flesshe & take smere & the ioyce of Calampynt & fry it in whyt greece & smere the hed often therwith.

¶ Another for the same.

Take garlyke, peper, salt, & of sowters wax & make a playster therof

¶ For to do away lyce or nyttes.

✠ Take an vnce of Groũdynges of Oyle Olyue & .ij. vnces of the groũdynges of Renysshe wyne & an vnce Arcuemẽt & mengle al togyther & smere the body therwith.

¶ Another for the same.

✠ Take an vnce of olde smere of a wylde Swine and the ioyce of Rewe .ij. peny wayght and a halfe peny wayght of quycke Syluer & and halfe an vnce of quicke Brymstone an vnce of groundes of Renysshe wyne, an vnce of Arcuemẽt, and all togyther and smere thy body;

hodye there with.

¶ Foz the Pauley.

Take red Fenell, Perſly, Sauayne, Lozel leues of euery of theſe a handeful, halfe a handefull of whyte Walowes & another of Radyſſhe, another of Auence. ij. hãdeful of Pzymroſe leues a handeful of Leuender a handeful of Iſope, a handfull of Borage, a haudfull of croppes of red Netel. ij. handfull of Hertestonge. ij. handfull of Holſequium halfe a handefull of Vyolettes, a hãdful of water creſſes, and almoche of Sage, as of halfe all ꝑ other herbes amonteth by wayght & thã let waſſhe thyne herbes clene & ſtampe thé & do thé in a newe earthen pot & do therto a galon of fyne Red wyne, and. iiij. potels of fayze ſpzyngynge water, & a potel of lyke hony, & let al theſe ſethe togy ther tyll they come to

Galon

galon & than take it downe of the fyer, strayne it through a strayner, and do it in a fayre, vessel and couer it very wel, and let the sycke drynke fyste at euen hote and at morne colde tyll he be hole.

¶ Another for the same.

Take Pellatory of Spayne, herbe Benet, Annes, Persly, Galyngale, Cloues, Nutmegges, Sage, Rewe, Stãnache. mares, frenche Sene, the sede of an herbe called Castore, lõge Peper, of eche lyke moche, a vnce of more or lesse as thou wylt make thẽ all to pouder and saue thẽ clene & eate of the pouder halfe a spõeful w thy Pottage eate euery mele day durynge thy lyfe & walsshe thy necke & thy hãdes and al thy ioyntes in Aqua vite & euery thyrde daye drynke a spõful of Aqua vite after thy mete

¶ For the ozopiye.

Take

℣ Take watet Cresses, and put awaye the whyte in the rotes and the flowers in the toppe & walshe them clene, & let thē lye tyl the wa= ter be renne out of them and than bzaye thē in a mozter, and strayne them in a lynnen clothe the moun tenance of a galon, & than boyle it and scome it clene, tyll it be wasted to a pottel foz than it wyll be clene and fayze & whan it is colde than take a pynte of Hony & put therto and sterre them wel togyther and scomme them well, & than take all hote put that lycoure in a pot wel stopped that no bzyth enter out & whā it is colde dzinke therof euery daye, at mozpynge and euenynge a good dzaught and after yf nede be, & yf it be vsed the dzoplye wyll dzawe in the legges & thā get thy selfe a issue & so ỹ mayst be eased.

℣ FINIS.

Here endeth
this boke of Medecynes called the Treasure of pozemē Imprynted at London in Fletestrete by wyllyam Wyddylton / dwellynge at the signe of the George nexte to saynt.
Dunstons churche.
The yere of our Lozde.
M. CCCCC. XLIIII.
The XIII. daye of December.